Government House

Request sanction to refund of Rs. 200-0-0 to Capt R. McCloughin in respect of certain table ornaments purchased by him for Govt House.

^{to be} Mr Bottomley ^{to be} Mr Harris x "I" means Mr Melfield through C.R. 395 clearly states that "Expenditure on Govt House Furniture incurred in the United Kingdom will only be admitted as a charge upon the Funds when made through the C.R." Mr Bowring was unaware of this regulation when he arranged the business with Capt McCloughin. The sum is about £14.

There seems to be no reason why the C.R. ¹⁹⁰⁵ should not be adhered to, but Mr Bowring has had the article ~~with~~ entered on the inventory of Govt Furniture, and so will have to pay an annual valuation.

Sir J. F. Addles.

Mr Smith tells me he has a note of table ornaments for a Court House, and I think within reason they may be supplied at public expense. So I would condone the irregularity of direct purchase.
As proposed.

Sir,

I have the honour to request sanction to refund to Captain R. J. McCoughlin, my Aide-de-camp, the amount of Rs. 200/4/3 being the sum paid by him to Messrs. Walker and Hall, Sheffield, for the purchase of certain table ornaments for Government House.

I ordered these articles to be obtained on the advice of the late Governor, Sir Percy Girouard, and at the time I was unaware of the ruling laid down in Colonial Office Regulation No. 295. The articles have since been added to the inventory of furniture in Government House.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your faithful obedient servant,

W. B. B. B.
