Mr. J. Anderson

I think that we can only come to the first view, but the trial will probably take many months & there will be discontent among the dispossessed settlers.

The dispossessed gentlemen can be accommodated elsewhere if they don't choose to wait.

REC'D 22 JAN 13

[Answered by No. 2545.]

In reply to paragraph 7 of your despatch
No. 885 of December 21st ^{*}The lawyers have now commenced action for the recovery of the Laikipia plateau. I do not consider it advisable that the alienation of the land should be proceeded with until the case is concluded. Please send instructions by telegraph.
