

admirably of Gov. of East having some personal control over admin. of Zanzibar & if so I furnish you views as to its nature & steps to be taken to secure it stop I do not wish to interfere with arrangements for visit to Masai reserve but if you could visit Zanzibar with out the reserve once few days before middle of June I should be glad otherwise visit must be postponed till end of August

Masai
 Proceedings in High Court

Case dismissed with costs on grounds of act of state and consequent lack of jurisdiction of local Court

Mr. Thompson
 Mr. G. Fiddes

It remains to be seen whether the House will take the case to the Judicial Committee of the P.C. I gathered from what one of the Assistant Officials said that they were standing to be

Not a very helpful decision [Mr. Bytherton suggested to me that if there was any chance - which he thought possible - of a decision against us, we should settle by a money payment]
