Then the Governor told us that the Europeans were for moving the Bazaar that the Indians were for extending it: that the matter showed the importance of giving municipal fort advice in order that the site might be acquired by it: and that Mr Williams, the Sanitary expert who went out in 1907 was strongly in favour of moving the Bazaar and - for economy - of doing so at once.

The ~~main~~ establishment of a responsible municipality is gradually coming nearer, and that the extension of the town is being completed, and a Sanitary expert is now on his way out. The
