Section 4.

Section 11 of the Protection of Animals Act 1911.

As it would rarely be necessary to comply with the requirements of the Section relating to the summoning of a Veterinary Surgeon, the Section in the Ordinance has been altered to enable a Police Officer to act without the certificate of a Veterinary Surgeon. Further the provisions of the Section are not restricted to - - - animals mentioned in Sub-section (4) of the Section in the English Act.

Section 5.

THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS ORDINANCE, 1913.

1. The purpose of this Ordinance is to substitute for the Indian Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1890 applied to the Protectorate, an Ordinance modelled on the English Protection of Animals Act 1911.
2. The Ordinance is in my opinion a necessary and proper Ordinance for enactment in this Protectorate.
