I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this day.

I am very much obliged to the Secretary of State, saying in his response of the proposition to telegraph between any substantial damage to has done to the public mind

X. No. 12779 4698-20

has included in the 14th edition during the last 3 years, & within the title of the area is practically the same as when Mr. Matthews departed on it on the 15th of 1907.

I completely appreciate his reasons for not allowing me to communicate directly with him But his words & I shall certainly not have thought of doing so without his permission.

I have the honor to be
