Postal Staff

You tel. 1 July - would be glad if appl. of both first class Postmasters could be made from home. - vide para 19 encl. to my des. 359 13 May - des. follows.

Mr. Reed.

Mr. Bowring's telegram is not quite clear. He recommends that both of the two new postal appointments of Postmasters Assistant which have recently been sanctioned - (vide Govt/1922/15-11 and Treasury/2259/248), should be filled from home and then you are to say "vide para 19 of enclosure in my despatch of No 359 of May 13th". I take it that when he says 'from home' he means by the appointment of officials from the British Postal Office

I have the honour to refer to your despatch No. 213 of 18th March last and to state that I agree that the Furniture Regulations as published in the Official Gazette of the 1st of September 1907 should be made applicable to the Staff of the Uganda Railway.

2. I anticipate that the approximate expenditure involved will be as follows:-

	Allowance	Total
Heads of Departments	Rs. 821	3,506
Assistants	" 395	,070
Subordinates	" 266	4,638

I would add that the totals above mentioned have not been computed as multiples of the "Allowances" in view of the fact that certain of the Railway Staff have already been partially supplied with furniture.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your humble, obedient servant,

In the absence of the GOVERNOR.
