Mr. Bostwick

This is extremely unfortunate, and we shall only wait for the names to be recommended by candidates in place of Messrs Brearey and Coates. The latter of them had already intimated, on 23rd July, that they were unable to accept the posts.

The present position is that we stand of 21 vacant clerks and telegraphists altogether to fill vacancies and the newly created posts. In the Estimates for 1913-1914, 16 posts were provided and 5 more were sanctioned on 14/227/201, making 21 in all.

Next subsequent Paper.
