minutes resp. decision to extend to Female Postal Clerks the privileges granted to nurses viz 3rd cl. railway fares to port of embarkation on first appl. (2) free port of disembarkation on return from leave, & (3) on all occasions open country, &c.

So far as I know, nurses are the only people who get rail fare (3rd class) from port of disembarkation to their homes and back to the port of embarkation when on leave. This is a special arrangement based on Wt precedent see SL/24408/11 ^{SL} _{Wt}

Female Postal Clerks draw smaller salaries than Nurses, £110 to £120 a year and they have only 2nd class

It seems difficult to justify a refusal to treat female postal clks as generously as Nurses, & I am inclined to auth. 6.6
