22nd. August 1913.

0 Sir,

With reference to Colonial Office Letters Nos 9575/1912 & 19624/1913 dated the 25th March & 14th June 1913 respectively addressed to Mr. J. A. SIMSON, Late Agent General in India for the British Protectorates in Africa, copies of which have been transmitted to me for my information, I most respectfully beg to submit the following facts relating to the dispensation of my services consequent upon the abolition of the Bombay Agency for the information of the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Prior to joining Mr. SIMSON'S office I occupied a permanent post in a local firm and the only inducement to leave my former post was that I was taking up service under the Hon'ble British Government and in one of their permanent establishments. The way in which I discharged the duties entrusted to me can be evidenced from the enclosed copy of Certificate given to me by Mr. SIMSON.

Having placed reliance on the permanency of my position, on the ultimate benefits conferred by the Government on its servants I had to give up more remunerative chances of outside private employment even at the time of the abolishment of the Agency had been definitely decided upon, not being permitted to seek service elsewhere till the Office was closed. By remaining at my post till the last, I fully hoped that I would eventually be entitled to a gratuity in accordance with the Foreign Office Rules & Regulations for the Protectorates Staff, as there was nothing in those Regulations depriving the Privileges to the Staff of the Bombay Agency.

On a kind and just consideration of the above facts I hope that Mr. Secretary Harcourt may graciously please to sanction the award of the gratuity in lieu of my service.

I beg to remain,
Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant,
Dadabhai Nasserwanji Mehta
Late Clerk in Bombay Agency for the British Protectorates in Africa.

COLONIAL OFFICE,
