THE TRUCKPASS ORDINANCE, 1913.

In 1913 an Ordinance was passed making provision for the prevention of theft of Stock and Produce, but under that Ordinance no provision was made, making it an offence for any irresponsible person entering on enclosed lands without being able to show they were there for a lawful purpose.

2. In order to strengthen the power given under the former Ordinance and to prevent stock theft, it has been deemed advisable to prevent Natives roaming at will over enclosed lands.

3. This Ordinance provides that any person who was found without the consent of the owner or proprietor on enclosed lands and was unable to satisfy the Court that he was there for a lawful purpose may be proceeded against under the Ordinance. Provision is also made for any landholder or his agent might himself arrest any Native offering any offence against the Ordinance if he thinks the Native is giving a false name and address.

4. I do not know if Mr. Currie adopted the Ordinance from the list of Ordinances Proterorate or not, so cannot supply a comparative table.

5. This Ordinance should be submitted to the Secretary of State before being assented to.

January, 1914.

J. G. M. G. M.
ATTORNEY GENERAL.
