The O. & C. of the 22nd of Oct 1906 to supply the O. & C. meeting a firm + Ex<sup>te</sup> Reg<sup>al</sup> Council, Art II of which tells the firm to obey instructions issued by the S. of S.

I should be inclined to take the former that his instructions were clearly contained in the S of S's telegram of the 10th of Aug. 1906 from [unclear] was manifest that the order for deportation was to be issued by the former under an arrangement with the provisions of the O. & C. of 1902 + ask him whether, as it is necessary to avoid unnecessary possible complications on account of <sup>part of strict</sup> non compliance with those provisions, he has in the order as well as in <sup>the present</sup> telegram attempted to divert himself of all responsibility in the matter

- ? add that <sup>for personal request that</sup> throughout the case he has <sup>failed to receive</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>co-operation</sup> to which he ~~is~~ entitled.

The report must be couched with exactness. The Govt must issue an order of deportation and also, if necessary, a warrant for his detention in case Govt finds his deportation.
The S. J. S. does not come in at all, except that the Govt has to report to him under S. 25 (b).

Off at once constant 8/9

From the press communications I gather that the order has been issued as under instructions from the S. J. S. This is unpardonable.

Will you telegraph 'collyer' if the film is to go as offered?
