Imperial loan - £250,000

Report receipt from Treasury of two further instalments of £53,000 & £32,000 on 14 May & 26 Aug respectively. Inquires as to payment of sinking fund contributions & interest on these & future instalments.

Mr. Read

This is the point we have just settled with the Treasury.

? Really that until further notice the interest and sinking fund payments on each instalment of the £250,000 should be made on the anniversary of the date on which each instalment was received, and not on the same date in all cases.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 7th.
of December 1912, No. 37679/1912, I have the honour to report that we have received from the Treasury
two further instalments of £53,000 and £31,000 respectively on account of the loan of £250,000 to be made to the East Africa Protectorate. These amounts were carried to the credit of our account with the Protectorate on the 14th. of July and the 26th. of August of this year respectively.

2. We shall be glad to know whether the contributions to sinking fund and the interest on these and future instalments should be paid to the Treasury on the 30th. of December in each year at the same time as the payments in respect of the previous instalment.

I have the honour to be,
