Sir:-

NO. 42912/14.

Referring to my letter of the 11th instant, I must apologise for again renewing my enquiry for information as to the safety of British subjects in German East Africa and any measures which may have been taken for the security of property there belonging to British subjects and English Joint Stock enterprises.

The reason for my putting forward this request again is that the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of this Company is fixed to take place on Friday next, the 2nd. proximo, when no doubt enquiries will be made by the shareholders in regard to these matters.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) Geoffrey Barlow,
Secretary.

Under Secretary of State
for Foreign Affairs,
Foreign Office.
