Land Laws

Mr. Wedgwood, -- To ask the Secretary of State for the Colonies, whether land is still being alienated in fee simple, or on long leases at fee farm rents, in British East Africa or Uganda; and, if not, what is the longest lease granted without any possibility of revision of rent. [Thursday 30th March.]

Mr Butler

After discussing this with you, I would propose as a reply

With regard to the alienation of Crown land in the East, the policy which the Government has been instructed to follow is best laid down in Lord Elgin's despatch of the 14th of March 1908. ^{Command Paper} ~~which is printed in~~ Pt. 29 of ~~the~~ 4117.

~~that the details of these~~ ^{contemplates} the grant of freehold only in homestead farms up to 50 acres, all other fruits being made in household economies of 29 years into a room of work at the end of the 33rd or 34th years. It is difficult to determine satisfactorily within the limits of a reply to a question the system he has followed in regard, but, simply, the system has been one of household economies for different periods up to a maximum of 29 years, the last increasing with the period of his last couple to the extent of acquiring the fruits of the whole, or a part, of the land based in certain conditions of development. The question of raising the system, or perhaps any system, and in the present the person has been instructed not to part any land with the prospect of acquiring the fruits
