Land Tenure

*20. Mr. Guinness, — To ask the Secretary of State for the Colonies, whether a parallel to the system of land tenure now in force in the British East Africa Protectorate can be found in any other Crown-Colony or Protectorate.
[Wednesday 3rd May.]

Mr. Guinness

I presume that his question is referring to the system of revision of rates after 33 or 66 years. If so, there is more than one parallel. In two of them the system of land tenure is one of perpetual lease subject to revision of rate every thirty years, and in others the lease is of twenty years, and is subject to the revision of rate every

So many points go to constitute a "parallel" that I think it would be safer to reply

If as I assume, the reference is to revision of rent during the currency of a lease, the answer is in the affirmative.
