Dear Sir,

East Africa Protectorate

We had the honour to write you on the 22nd inst. asking you to be good enough to let us have a print of any regulations issued under Section 34 of Ordinance No. 21 of 1902 relating to the above Protectorate.

Our clients The East African Cotton Co. (1911) Ltd. are pressing us to let them have a draft Assignment of the Agreement for Lease granted by His Majesty to The East African Cotton Syndicate Ltd., as they want to submit it to a Board Meeting which they are proposing to hold early next month.

If you could let us have this, we should be much obliged.

We are, dear Sir,

Yours truly,
