Mr. Moore served in Karachi under me as an European Constable in the Police Department, and afterwards as an Inspector; and during the two years I was there - 1902-1903-1904- he performed his duties in a capable and satisfactory manner. His conduct during that time was excellent, and since I have been acquainted with him I have found him quiet and gentlemanly in his behaviour.

I have much pleasure in recommending him as a thoroughly reliable and trustworthy officer.

At the request of Bri Moore I am pleased to be able to certify that, during the 4 years he has been a member of this Corps, he has always acquitted himself most creditably in duties. He has extra efficient year year, is smart at drill, and is a good marksmen and winner of many Musketry prizes. I understand he will shortly be eligible for the Volunteer Long Service Medal, as he was a member of the Sind Volunteer Rifle Corps before he joined this Corps.

With his quiet, respectful and gentlemanly bearing on and off the parade ground he has always set an excellent example to other Volunteers, and, whilst I wish him luck in his search for a better position, I should be very glad to see such a good Volunteer.
