they conform to the terms laid down in the Master and Servants Ordinance above referred to and the Manager of the Uganda Railway finds himself in consequence deprived of the control, which it is highly necessary that he should exercise over his Indian employees; more particularly, as efforts are being made to entice some of them into German East Africa to work on the Railway there.

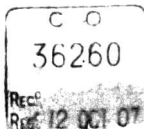

I am, therefore, very much obliged, if Your Lordship will inform me by cablegram whether you would consent to my signing the Ordinance.

I have the honour to be,

EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

AN ORDINANCE

~~No. 7 of 1907.~~

To amend the Master and Servants Ordinance, 1906.

Be it enacted by the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Master and Servants Ordinance 1907, and shall be read as one with the Master and Servants Ordinance, 1906.

(1) Any written contract of service entered into in British India for service in the East Africa Protectorate shall if it shall have been executed and attested in the manner prescribed by the Indian Emigration Act 1883 or by any law for the time being in force in British India relating to the Emigration of Natives of India be deemed to have been executed in conformity with the Master and Servants Ordinance 1906 anything in Section 37 of the said Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

(2) Any such contract of service shall be deemed to have been made, executed, and attested in conformity with the laws in force in British India, if it shall bear the attesting signature of an Officer or other person purporting to be a person authorised by law to attest such contracts, unless it shall be proved that such person was not so authorised.
