The urgent proposal was reasonable & a new arrangement fact that Mr. Jefferson's absence to forego their leave, should be approved

OF THE
PROTECTORATE
IN AFRICA
UNLESS OTHERWISE ORDERED.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 21334 dated the 28th. June and to tender my thanks to the Earl of Elgin for his kind sanction to a part of the savings on Mr. Jeaffreson's salary being expended on providing additional remuneration for my clerks who have had additional work actually thrown upon them owing to Mr. Jeaffreson's absence.

It is only upon my Head Native Clerk, my second and my fourth Clerks that extra work has been thrown and particulars of that devolving upon each are given in a List appended. My entire staff has worked most satisfactorily and has succeeded in carrying through the work without a mistake although it has been heavier than ever before and four Embarkments of Troops have passed through Bombay. All have, it is perhaps almost superfluous to mention, had to forego their annual leave which is not cumulative.

Mr. Jeaffreson was absent from the 24th. May 1906 to the 28th. March 1907, say 10 months in all. During the first three of which, I understand, he was full pay. During the next three months three quarters pay, and during the remaining four months half pay, representing a total saving to Government of say £110.

In view of the circumstances of the case I should be glad for the favour of His Lordship's sanction, the following allowances to the three Clerks upon whom extra work fell for the period of seven months during which Mr. Jeaffreson men did not draw full pay, namely:

Head Native Clerk, B.R. Davar, whose pay is Rs.120.- per month, an allowance of Rs.24.- per month = Rs.144.-

Second Clerk, A. Mangosh Rao, whose pay is Rs.75.- per month, an allowance of Rs.12.- per month = Rs.87.-

Fourth Clerk, N. Shankernarain Rao, whose pay is Rs.35.- per month, an allowance of Rs.10.8.- per month = Rs.73.8.-

making a total of Rs.325.8.-, or say £ 21.14.-

I am greatly obliged for the copy of the despatch addressed by His Lordship to the Commissioners of the East Africa, Uganda, and Somaliland Protectorates under date of the 23rd October 1906 on the subject of Acting Allowances.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient and humble Servant,

W. S. Mansel
Agent General

the
Under Secretary of State
Colonial Office.-
