Name of Paper

Does not consider Co. letter of 29th June a satisfactory one. Is advised that it will cost £2000 or £3000 to have an agent to make a selection of land they require, in view of which would like a more definite assurance as to terms on which a lease would be granted. Presumes 6 months limit for making selection and also from arrival of Agent in Africa.

(Mention)

Mr. Read
I regret that you are ground for departing from the position which we took up on 21/5/03 which seems to me to be sound.

Mr. Anderson

See in file. See to advise in 25233

answer to him a copy of Mr. Patterson's report - see his letter attached to 21/5/03. I shall be obliged to answer the letter by pointing out the impossibility of our sending another report for some time to come to find out
