TREASURY CHAMBERS,

9th May 1908.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 30th ultimo (8773/1908), I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to request you to inform the Earl of Crewe that Their Lordships are prepared to agree that, when an officer is transferred from a professional office in a British Colony or Protectorate, to which an addition of years is attached for pension purposes, to a similar office in one of the East African Protectorates, these additional years shall be included in the calculation of his final pension on the understanding that the portion of the pension resulting from such addition will be defrayed by the Colony or Protectorate which first employed him.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

J. L. Smith

Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office.

The Earl of Elgin

I am directed by the Secretary of State for the Colonies to inform you that the following is the substance of a letter received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies on the 10th of the month of June last (No. 107406) repecting the question of the appointment of officers to the position of Assistant Secretary in the Colonies in Eastern Africa.

2. It is proposed that the Secretary of State for the Colonies should be empowered to appoint officers to the position of Assistant Secretary in the Colonies in Eastern Africa.

in accordance with a general rule in calculating the pensions of officers transferred from the Colony to another, when those officers possessed professional qualifications in proportion to the amount for such qualifications as between the various Colonies which contribute towards the pension, and this rule will be carried out with regard to any provision of Protectorates which are entirely dependent on the ordinary control.

It is only fair to the Secretary of the State to be fair that, in regard to Protectorates and to some extent under the financial control of the Treasury a similar ruling should be accepted.

As already mentioned in the letter from the Department on the 30th of April, Lord Curzon has accepted the proposition that in the case of a
