We are constantly receiving applications for laws & regulations; and our supply is not infrequently insufficient for our own needs. I suggest that you suggest that the law people be supplied with their private suggestions & as they should send a representative to consult them in the library. S.L.

It occurs to me that it should be considered as general question whether all Colonies & Prots. should not be told to send duplicates their Agents for the supply of copies of their laws to the Genl. or fragment.

It occurs to me that it should be considered as a general make diggers their agents for the supply of copies of their laws

Mr. Ellis you do not seem to have seen that paper Jan 29/1/78

The difficulty is that we cannot compel Weyman to stock available documents (a 50 description which applies to most Colonial Antiquaries) and that they charge highly for the trouble of procuring single copies from the Colonies.

Mr. Green

Will you be in of the papers people who want of any Colonial Weyman's.
31/1

Mr. Ellis

I am sorry to say that this paper has been found in my room.
The answer is in the affirmative
- but we cannot say absolutely that Weyman will be able to supply them. If they cannot get them out of Weyman's they must write and to the Colonial Govt.
