Dear Mr. Read,

I am obliged for yours of yesterday's date. We do not, however, require the services of anyone at Babay in the capacity you mention.

Believe me,

Yours faithfully,

H. J. Read, Esq., to the extent of £1000. The the Committee of the Society of Friends should be owing to the last of the year. The present in the of the Committee is as follows: (I think) and for the year in 1844.

The work and responsibility of my office have largely increased so much that both the premises and staff were added to recently at the expense of the Society of Friends.

It is apprehended being of a special nature I think it would be unnecessary to apply for a certificate of no quarrel of the society during the time of my leave. This arrangement is properly entered on the minutes of the meeting on the 14th of the month but such a provision is not usual in the Society of Friends.

I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours,
 W. Scapillon

in full.

To the point of the point of leave granted to my appointment I would wish to have my consideration. With a magnanimous of the hope of it impossible even for me to with the point of an officers service and to the most trying time of year in the service beginning of the year until the middle of January.

My aid upon the leave only it is not worth to avoid with. It is to be presumed that the Indian Government can make the leave granted to them, ^{Officers} accept with what the possibility, after long experience, have found to for the best interests of the service. They allow perhaps to be considered as a separate subject always to a term of two years being granted of at one time but then officers are not paid on full with all the means for the entire period of their service but they are sometimes of being transferred to healthy stations from time to time. I may be wrong and
