No. 238

September 29th, 1911

C O

My Lord,

With reference to your Lordship's despatch No. 514 of the 25th ultimo, I have the honour to enclose herewith a map showing the proposed new reserve and the proposed new ward reserve.

Your Lordship will observe that the actual area of the reserve has been reduced to less than that of the old reserve, due to the large area of land being reserved for the comparative immaturity of the plantations used in colonizing the areas, and proposed new reserve is however, slightly larger by some 10
square miles than the old reserve.

I have the honour to be,
My Lordship,
Your obedient servant,

(In the absence of the Governor)

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
THE EARL OF CRENSHAW,
SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES,
DOWNING STREET, LONDON, S.W.
