

ESTABLISHED 1801
PATRONAGE

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is partially obscured by ink smudges and is difficult to decipher, but appears to contain several lines of cursive script.

Lord Uxbridge

In accordance with the foregoing under the applications of all those candidates who are Oxford

Cambridge men than by comparing you into, and with deliberation with Mr Ellis and Mr. Butcher the Bishop of Exeter especially good men I submit the name of Mr. C. H. Osborne to be a part of Assistant Collector (or junior) and representative official in the East Africa

Mr. C. H. Osborne and woman and obtained as Tolly
four years
the class
India
and then 18 months in South Africa engagement terminating returned to England
Assistant

His paper
6608/1

From enquiries rather of the "solid" than of the brilliant side of conventions pamphlets and notes of it has used by his subordinates. He is stated to be a good shot, an excellent horseman, fair at table sports, trustworthy and a true temperance.

Appl. says he made a favorable impression perhaps he has improved since he went down.

583

Another candidate whose papers I think you should see Mr. C. H. Osborne and Mr. C. H. Osborne
and a third
with recommendations which qualifications - he But Osborne is four years older with a better degree, and for experience should be given to a candidate for the post and generally is much better Assistant

45516/1905

47/39
Recd
Dec 19 DEC 05

Protestant

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the above mentioned matter. I have the honor to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
 J. B. [Name]

J. B. [Name], Capt.
 3rd Regt. [Name]

Under Secretary of State
 Colonial Office.

State for the Colonies to be physically fit for service

as an American citizen

the general conditions attached to and a copy of the

of the

of these

of the medical officers

of the

The letter is to be detached and sent with him, and you will be required to pay him a fee for his services

He will send his report direct to this Department