EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

No. 248

My Lord,

In reply to Your Lordship's despatch No. 199 of April 12th enclosing copies of correspondence with the War Office on the subject of Sergeant Major Rehm's appointment as clerk and accountant in the Survey Department of the East Africa Protectorate and a form to be filled in by him; I have the honour to report that he has applied to be allowed to withhold his decision as to prolonging his service, until an answer has been received to his application for discharge and pension, which was forwarded to Your Lordship's office by His Majesty's Commissioner, Uganda Protectorate, at the end of March, and which has doubtless crossed your despatch under reply.
