Subject

Blind People as Residents

Enquires whether any regulation exists to prevent blind people from landing to take up their residence

(Minister)

Reply that there is no regulation preventing the immigration of a blind person unless he comes under the description of "any person without sufficient means of support or any person who is likely to become a pauper or a public charge" and need not pay the Customs duty

I am in reply to your letter of the 23rd inst.
 and to inform you that there is no regulation
 in force in the E.A.P. preventing the immigration of a
 blind person, unless he or she comes
 under the description of any person without visible means of support or any person who is likely to become a pauper or a public charge.

Yours truly
