Key

(Subject)

Chief Officer L. R. Bennett

Recommendation promotion of Lt. Bennett is regarded as a commendable one. Director who has not given a recommendation as Acting Chief Officer to the post, & that he is not an eligible for Acting

(Remarks)

See Head

It is to be hoped by this mail we are told that Capt. Farnall is now at Tacklaan in dealing with his wound.

Request of Macrow's promotion such for which report on Director is being made at the time.

N.C.B. 11/6

Mr. Bennett had not been recommending by the government The Director has been more willing and perhaps has been more willing to submit to Capt. Farnall, who is certainly not a gentleman with the same name, but only a bluff manner. 11/6

With reference to Mr. Johnson's report of 20th of January 1907, I have the honor to advise that Mr. Johnson recommends that Mr. Drennon be appointed as the vacant post of Chief Officer on the T.S. Steamer Service, and I concur in his recommendation.

It is true that Mr. Drennon is a native of the U.S. and their relative positions being as follows:

	Date of Birth	Date of Appointment
Mr. J. Drennon	Sept. 13, 1867	Sept. 2, 1906
Mr. E. Drennon	Sept. 2, 1891	Sept. 2, 1906

Mr. J. Drennon is a native of the U.S. and his service on the T.S. Steamer Service is carried out his duties as Chief Officer on the T.S. "Agilis" in a manner calculated to enhance his credit and efficiency, with the result
