DRAFT

C. S. Gollan Esq,

Dear Sir,
I refer to the letter from the Dept of the Interior, June 10, 1907, by the Secy of the Interior, in which you state that the Secy of the Interior has recommended the withdrawal of the word "nature" from the list of words in which natives have rights for the words "cultivated by natives".

- Mr. Bond 29
- Mr. Cook
- Mr. Edwards
- Mr. Cox
- Mr. Evans
- Mr. F. Hopson
- Mr. Church
- The Secy of the Interior

The word "nature" is not in the list of words in which natives have rights.

It is proposed to make this amendment in the same agreement which is being prepared for the grant of land to the natives of East Africa.
