Mr A S Cooper
 appl. for promotion

For 1/2 completed

(Minutes)

Mr Harris

If a Railway accident in place fell vacant which it would be worth his while to take he would be a good selection.
 For a Treasurer if there are I shall think candidates with better claims.

W.H.G.

He struck me as a decidedly good looking
 - a tall, handsome man with features of considerable apparent knowledge of his job.
 he may now say that he is not fit to be a Treasurer

What Mr. Cooper says is quite correct viz: that under the existing orders of the Secretary of State he cannot get any further promotion in his present post.

Mr. Eastwood is under the same disability with the exception that he holds the better post.

Mr. Cooper is a clear headed, capable officer and although under the circumstances I will do all I can to help him better himself I shall be very sorry indeed to see him leave the Railway. He is very enthusiastic on East Africa and the Uganda Railway and it would be a great pity if he left the country.

There is too much work in the Chief Accountant's office for only one man, we require two men, and are very fortunate in having two such reliable officers as Messrs. Eastwood and Cooper. If the Railway is to be extended the work in that office will increase and it may be possible to improve Mr. Cooper's prospects.

He is well qualified to fill the posts he mentions and would I feel sure give satisfaction in any of them.
