if medals were given for value

SUPPOSE for a moment that the idea of giving medals were to proceed from the field of sports to the field of commerce—that the creating of a medal for value were to earn the same reward as a record for the mile? Suppose, in fact, that some one were to institute an Order of Value in commerce—another U.S.E. (the Order of Business Entrance) as it were) thus indeed would Whitesays be unconformably be medalized and would probably "show medals"—rows and rows of them all round in fair competition.

"The Whitesays Way"

The word "value" sums up the whole policy of Whitesays, and the making of records in value is their constant endeavour—to that end their buyers and agents in all parts of the world maintain an unswerving watch for new sources of supply which may permit still lower prices.

Makes no mistake, this reputation for value is no haphazard thing—it was not easily won and it is not lightly maintained—one lapse and it would be destroyed!

A BREXIT NOTICE.
In the news of the Irish notice.

The case in which Charles Court was charged with highway robbery and extortion, before Justice Pakenham in the Supreme Court was continued on Wednesday morning. The jury after a few minutes consultation returned a verdict of guilty to the charge of extortion.

The death of Mr. James Albert Colman, a prominent Nairobian, was announced. He passed away at the Kenya Nursing Home at 12.30 a. m. on Tuesday following an attack of pneumonia.

The death of Mr. Colman was a great blow to the sporting world of Kenya, and all those who have come in contact with him. He was a most sportsmanlike and cheerful person, and his death is a great loss to the community.

When in the motor accident involving a lorry which will result in death, it is not only the driver who is liable but also the passengers who are seated in the lorry.

When Better Automobiles Are Built, Buick Will Build Them

"Nobody can say I wasted my money"

Peter DePaolo—1923 Indianapolis Race Winner

This statement from the young race driver, who purchased a Buick a week after he finished his car to victory at Indianapolis...

For, just as DePaolo recognizes the superiority of valve-in-head engines for the race and personal use, so too have more than a million every-day motorists recognized the dependability and performance of Buick's and the Valve-in-Head type...

DePaolo bought a new Buick with part of the $39,000 prize money that he won on the Indianapolis Speedway and drove it to Alaska where he won the 250-mile race. He bought it with the motor car expert's discriminating eye for performance, for dependability and for genuine value.

LIVE GORILLAS. 10,000 YEARS AGO.

EXTINCTION THREAT. A FOSSEL SKULL.

Mr. J. G. Burleigh, an American hunter and conservationist with his son, has arrived in London...

Up to Mr. Burleigh's furrier expedition to Africa, and he returned to the Belgian Congo Three years ago...

The latest specimen has been the capture of four fresh gorillas, two of which died of pneumonia...

THE AFRICAN.

Just and a Chantal Brin. Mrs. Gertrude Kerner died Tuesday morning at 10:30 a.m. after a long illness...

Mr. Burleigh has various large scars, most of which are not yet healed up, caused in the capture of every young gorilla. He says that the gorilla in his native habitat is ferocious...

THEIR GREATEST ENEMY Regarding the alleged wanton killing of gorillas by hunters, which threatens the extinction of the species, Mr. Burleigh states that conservationists are being hampered by hunters...

There are few gorilla trophies in the world, so the two specimens will be of great value. One is destined for the American Museum, and the other for New York.

While at Victoria West, Mr. Burleigh was told by a local hunter that he had seen a gorilla in the bush. He was told that it would be well to capture it...

THE PRODIGAL SON.

"Since the Dole"—in England Now.

A KENYA SETTLER ABROAD.

(By Po-Pop)

"The latest word is greater for me—
I'd like to live in England for me.
I'd like to live in England for me."
I'd like to live in England for me.

Now you see, my dear Henry Henry's sister. "What adventures you have had to be sure it can't be better than 'What a money you are both and so on, and I'd like to live in England for me."

From which it may be gathered that Henry's sister, a settler from Kenya, had been drawing the length for the benefit of her family and—well with great success. It was a good idea, that of retirement and Prodigal Son returned. The Henry's sister, had been on Henry's side in Kenya,
with only one little in Kenya,
she took the money, and was his best man, and was his best man.
The old woman had a great deal
to do.

Henry which is making the life blood of this nation. It may not be so much an accident and piece to the individual, but it is a larger picture of the nation of a people.
Part is—(said he, coming out of the dining with a jerk)
"You must under understand that..."
"Unpleasant," he said Henry.

They sat together in the house
again.
It is an extremely high price for a job in Kenya. The grounded Henry's. "And there will be no more."

"There's nothing at the present," replied the aged apparently. "Look how do you feel?" he asked.
Henry.
The system of doing a work
in Kenya is a work.
"What's the system of doing a work
in Kenya?" he asked.
Henry.
"Can you see, there's water
in it?"

And a sign of the time
was, he had learned how to lighten this through. And of course, the poor man.
Henry.
