DAMASCUS MESSAGE.

Over 1,600 Syrians Dead.

TRAVELLERS' ACCOUNT.

London, November 5.—A French tourist has returned from a tour of the Holy Land, and reports that the number of Syrians who died in the earthquake which struck the country in the month of August, 1926, was not less than 1,600. He says that the earthquake was the most severe since the time of the great earthquake of 1834, and that it was the most destructive since the time of the earthquake of 1834.

TRAGEDY IN WALES.

Drowning of a Great Dane.

London, November 5.—A Great Dane, named "Giant," was reported to have been drowned in the sea at the mouth of the River Sever, near the town of Shrewsbury, on the morning of the 4th inst. The dog was about 18 months old, and was the property of a Mr. J. H. Jones, of Shrewsbury. It was reported that the dog was swimming in the sea when it was carried off by a strong current.

MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE.

THE CLAIMS OF AFRICA.

Continent of the Century.

M. G. GIBSON'S VIEW.

London, November 5.—The continent of Africa is a continent of the future, and it is the duty of the world to develop it. It is the duty of the world to develop it, and it is the duty of the world to develop it. It is the duty of the world to develop it, and it is the duty of the world to develop it.

LANDS EMBARGO TO GO.

Chancellor's Announcement.

ADVANTAGE TO COLONIES.

London, November 5.—The Chancellor of the Exchequer has announced that the Government will grant a concession to the colonies in the matter of the importation of certain goods. This concession will be in the form of a reduction in the duties on these goods, and it is expected that it will be of great benefit to the colonies.

DEATH OF PROF. MAVOR.

Eminent Scottish Scholar.

London, Nov. 5.—Professor James Mavor, F.R.S., has died at his home in Edinburgh. He was a distinguished scholar and a member of the Royal Society. He was born in 1850, and spent most of his life in Scotland. He was a member of the House of Commons, and he held various offices in the Government.

BIG BROTHER MOVEMENT.

Lads for the Colonies.

FAREWELL BY THE PRINCE.

London, November 5.—The Prince of Wales has said farewell to the "Big Brother" boys who are going to the colonies. The boys are a group of young men who have been trained in the "Big Brother" system, and they are now being sent to the colonies to help in the development of the country.

BRITISH ELECTIONS.

Labour Municipal Gain.

MUNICIPAL PARTISAN.

London, November 5.—The results of the municipal elections in London have been a gain for the Labour party. The Labour party has won a majority in several of the wards, and it is expected that it will continue to gain in the future. The Labour party has been successful in its campaign, and it is a sign of the growing strength of the party in London.

LAND SALES.

A 1926 List.

Several land sales are announced for the month of November. These sales include a large tract of land in the East End of London, and a tract of land in the West End. The sales are expected to be successful, and they will be of great benefit to the Government.

AREARS OF RATES.

A Test Case.

The Magistrate's Court has decided a test case in relation to the arrears of rates. The case concerned a tenant who had failed to pay his rates for a period of several months. The Magistrate has ruled that the tenant is liable for the arrears, and that the landlord is entitled to recover the amount.

SALE OF FARMS.

The auctioneer has sold a large tract of land in the East End of London. The land is situated in a desirable location, and it is expected to be of great value. The sale was successful, and the land has been sold for a high price.

GIROUARD CUP FINAL

Mombasa wins the "Blue Ribband" of Kenya Football.

CALEDONIANS DEFEATED BY THE BETTER SIDE.

Second Half of an Excellent Match Spilt by a Deluge of Rain.

The best for the Girovard Cup, the "Blue Ribband" of football in Kenya is always a big attraction and the interesting spectacle of the best outside of the province. The match on Saturday at the Railway ground, when the visiting team, the Caledonians, met the home team for the trophy, was no exception to the rule.

In spite of the threatening weather conditions, conditions were dark clouds hovered from the early afternoon of the game, heralding a storm. There was a glistening sun immediately before the match, but the rain soon descended and the ground was waterlogged. The match was played in the rain, the rain being the cause of the game.

FIRST HALF
 Caledonians won the toss and started in their attack, and Mombasa got the game going. Mombasa immediately raised the tempo and Mombasa got only to see the Caledonians a few minutes later. The match was a close one, followed by a goal by Mombasa. The Caledonians were defeated in the first half.

SECOND HALF
 The second half started in a slow game with Mombasa in possession. Mombasa was in possession of the ball for most of the half. The Caledonians were defeated in the second half.

SECOND HALF

As the second half opened, Mombasa was in possession of the ball. The Caledonians were defeated in the second half.
