Rioting at Cardiff.

Warehouse Fired.

Mob Drunk on Street.

Police Stoned and Injured.

[Reader's Special to "E. A. Standard" London, July 19.—There has been serious rioting by the miners strikers in Cardiff as a result of the arrest of one leader. Two warehouses were set on fire supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Rioting in local streets has broken out since they touched. The strikers' mob stoned the police and the police were charged. Six constables and thirty rioters were injured in the riot.
