How I Got Rid of My Freckles.

Every summer my face used to be covered with unsightly yellow Every summer my lace used to be covered with unsightly yellow spots, and my complexion was truly awful. I consulted many doctors, but could not find anything to take out the ugly marks. So deeply rested did they become that even in winter time they could be seen, and it was obvious that as I grew older my freckles could be seen, and it was opvious that as a grew order my trecklet grew w-re. One day I explained my troude to a family frend, an eniment medical man, and he gave me the secret of a remarkable preparation he had discovered, which, he assured me, always succeeded, even in the most difficult cases. I was rather incredulous, but resolved to try his treatment, and to rather incredulous, but resolved to try his treatment, and to my surprise and delight, the first application made a distinct difference in the depth of colour in the spots, and after a few days they complexly disappeared. My frends tried the preparation with equal success, and, desiring to make this valuable preparation known, I will send you the preparation of Powell's Oure for the skin trouble, 2s. 9d. His Majesty the King Said:

The same causes which render it necessary for individual firms to spend large sums of money on advertisements, in order to maintain their position in a particular trade, also render it imperative that every effort should be made at the present day to maintain and improve the reputation of British manufacturers as a whole Experience has shown that, even in the case of firms having an established reputation and worldwide connections, attempts to discontinue advertising have usually been followed by a diminution of the sales effected, and it is not unreasonable to assume that the neglect by Great Britain of one of the most important forms of national advertisement would be equally detrimental to her interests as a manufacturing country.

Speech by King George, April 5th, 1909.

If the goods you sell, or the business you conduct, appeal to the people of East Africaadvertise them in "The Dally Standard." Its readers are in a position to buy the best and pay for it.

Illustrated Advertisements are a necessity nowadays. The "Standard" P. & P. Works make all kinds of picture blocks to order.

NATURE MODES

The little coat or jacket bodies that were of well beloved by the belles of the early flies are to be given a welcome. At a first introduction they rather suggest dowdiness, ut that is only because we have not yet ecome closely acquainted with taffetas and is accompanying frills, ruches and quiling.

and a few months women who have said good-bye to their twenty-sixth birthday will all be wondering why they have grown sud-denly so much older. The ornate triunning heralded with the taffeta craze will add years to the appearance of everyone. To Sweet and Twenty it will not matter. She will look radiantly happy, not through the new mode, but rather in spite of it.

To the majority these mature fashions will only succeed in emphasising them naturity.
