HEAVY CATTLE LOSSES.

The North and Central-West regions of Andalusia are at present in the throes of a drought, which is being regarded as the heaviest in the history of the district. The Andalusian Government, writing in a special issue of the "Andalusian" of the 20th inst., states that the drought is the heaviest in the history of the district.

It is estimated that in some pastures, where there had been an estimated 100,000 head of cattle, only 10,000 are now left. In some cases, the loss is as high as 90 per cent.

East African Recipes.

How to Reduce the Cost of Living.

No. 1: Maize as a Table Delicacy.

BY A KENYA HOUSEWIFE.

There are few vehicles which affect every member of the community so clearly as the cost of living. It has often been considered that living costs had fallen since the war, but in preparation which would give an official verdict in the daily news of a very modest sort, "The East African Standard" has made arrangements for the publication of a series of articles in the form of recipes suitable for East African produce. One will appear each week and will first appear to-day.

Maize is one of the cheapest and most nourishing of foods procurable in this country. Innumerable tasty dishes may be prepared from the cereal and below are a few recipes which every East African housewife should try.

For eating, the kernels should be very tender, so that when sprinkled with the finger salt, the milk squirts out. Boiled or steamed on the cob and eaten with salt and butter it is excellent, or it may be cut from the cob and served as a rich white sauce.

MAIZE FRITTERS.

- 2 Cups of Flour
- 5 Teaspoons of Baking Powder
- 1 Teaspoon of Salt
- 14 Cups of Milk
- 2 Eggs
- 11 Cups of maize cut from the cob

With flour and baking powder mix well. Add milk, eggs, yolks and salt and beat till smooth. Add maize and, lastly, the stiffly beaten whites of eggs. Bake on hot grid or in frying pan rubbed with fat, oil or fat. These fritters may be served as a savory with butter or as a sweet with jam or syrup.

MAIZE SOUP.

Boil corn of cob for fifteen minutes. Then grate off the kernels. To two cups of maize only add one cup of water, salt and pepper. Bring to the boil. In another saucepan boil one cup of milk. Add milk to maize and serve.

MILLED MAIZE.

This is made from dried maize and may be used as the foundation for many delicious dishes. Slices and serve plain or with any desired sauce. To make an easy large mixing spoon of soda to one quart of dried maize. Cook over night and boil in the same water until the water has evaporated. When the balls have all been removed, be ready for use.

THE BEPPER BELOW ARE MADE WITH MAIZE MEAL.

Use as an accompaniment to a delicious breakfast cereal. Serve plain or with the addition of salt-sauce or dates a few minutes before serving.

Make a thick porridge with maize meal and steam thoroughly cooked plain in a thick enameled pan. When cold and firm, slice and fry, serve with syrup.

JOVINNY CAKE.

8½ 1 teaspoon baking soda, 1 cup flour, 1 cup maize meal, 1 egg, 2 cups milk and 2 tablespoons sugar. Spoon into and 2 tablespoons sugar together. Add two tablespoons shortening, 14 cups corn milk and 1 egg to dry ingredients. Grease a shallow pan. Put soup in batter. Bake in a hot oven 25-30 minutes. Eat with butter or jam.

SURPRISE BREAD.

Soak together 14 cups maize meal, 1 cup flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder and 1 teaspoon salt. Beat in 1 tablespoon butter as hard as possible. Add 2 eggs to about 1 cup of milk. Mix with dry ingredients and beat well. Fill greased pan or puff tin three-quarters full. On top of this put 1 teaspoon red jelly or jam and cover with butter. Bake in a hot oven for twenty minutes.

The Advent of the New Plymouth means that the standard by which buyers have been accustomed to judge automobiles in the very moderate price field must be entirely revised.

Not are the improvements in the Chrysler "65" solely a matter of external design and internal fittings. Chrysler has gone far beyond anything ever previously accomplished in the chassis design of the new Chrysler "65."

LONDON, Sept. 30. The cricket season closed with a blaze of glory when almost the last of the Testers which ever play the spectators at the height of interest were present in the main between the Champion, County, Lancashire and the Rest at the Oval. Women and Children Rescued from a Leaking Schooner. A VOYAGE OF THRILLS

Demoted Stoker Rashes Overboard from Italian Boat

The voyage of the German liner "Nyassa" which terminated at Mombasa last night was one of unusual excitement for East Africans straining from Britain.

Signals of Distress from a Leaking Schooner in the Mediterranean led to the rescue of the crew of the demoted stoker rashes overboard a few days before and was drowned.

ROMANCE OF AN ENGAGEMENT

The German Steamer Nyassa, which arrived at Mombasa on Wednesday evening last week, had a very notable voyage.

It was not until an "engagement" occurred on the voyage that the crew and passengers were made aware of the fact that the ship was on its way to Genoa.

Up to that point, the passengers were not made aware of the fact that the ship was on its way to Genoa.

The members have failed to realize that the success of this section is to be measured not so much by the number of articles exhibited as by the quality of the work. Among the other exhibits in this section, that of Master John Gray, who is now in England, is a masterpiece of work. It is a 'B.C.' of Kenya, a masterpiece of work in the sense of that word, and it is one of the most perfect pieces of work that have been shown in this section.

Other exhibits in the two sections were of a high standard of quality. The work of Mr. R. F. Meyer, Mr. A. Harris, and Mr. J. Harris, was particularly noteworthy. The work of Mr. R. F. Meyer, Mr. A. QUEER MEALS EATEN BY TRAVELERS.

A Dish of Succulent Snags.

DINNER TABLE HEROISM.

Attable lines are popularly supposed to have the greatest variety of food to be found anywhere on earth. They have a reputation for the little private dinners that are given to the guests of the hotel.

It is rather when I eat one of these (written on "Evening News" correspondence) that I am so sure that at times our hotel food is not so good as the simple meals for good appetites, and the things that a good journey had prepared unobtrusively with a variety of fancy foods, all of which are prepared to a high standard as such as I have seen.

It is customary in Sweden to start a meal with meringues—half a dozen instead of six—and then a cold course. But here the preliminary dishes mentioned are half a dozen, but over half a hundred! I counted 47 different kinds, and then gave up.

Smoked salmon, fancy half-raw meat, eggs and stringed mushrooms, hamlets in six forms, varieties of four kinds nearly as many as different salads and various things formed the foundation.

Followed hot dishes, like coarleties and kidneys, were replacement when necessary. Poultry, baked and broiled, and some common hard-ward I noted one plump and worthy northern livestock sampling every variety, to the accompaniment of glasses of wine.

This done, the real meal began. In a recent dinner given to Sweden, the sons of the Parliament were wanted that it is not considered polite to eat up all the meringues that is offered. This warning is not unnecessary.

I had very different experiences in the Arctic. I had taken passage in a Robb's ship from Archangel to Frederic, the most beautiful and remote spot in north-eastern Europe.

A Modern Chinese Wife.

The ship was crowded with the families of officials returning home before the new term for the winter. We ran out of food, and for the last day or two from 11 till 12 we ate our dinner on paper oil.

The ladies give us such an appetite that even a piece of butter that nothing.

When we reached Pechora Bay, the native fishermen, Novgorod, came alongside offering his fresh salmon for sale. Three of us shared together and bought some, which I took to be of the most wonderful meals of our lives. There was nothing but salmon and salt water

Friends in the Nursery.

By Helen Graham C.M.E., etc.

It has been repeatedly suggested to me that these articles (together with a few on maternal care) be arranged in the form of a small book on Infant Care as the nursery (young ones) would be particularly anxious to see the illustrations. I have accordingly arranged to publish them under the title of "Friends in the Nursery." The book will be of great value to all mothers and subscribers should desire it in an early issue. (Helen Graham.)

"It is the best delivery of a woman or 'friend'." was said, I think, once, in prayer of her mother, but it might very well be said by mothers over their nursery doors. For, indeed, an orderly delight in their dealings with infants, are quite indispensable when they get lower in a nursery. Mothers have complained bitterly to me on more than one occasion that they could manage their children so much better if it were not for the will-won'ting friend and mother-brother.

Proverbs for infants in familiar with the household, acquaintance with the different forms of a child and events and happenings (especially in the field) help the child to understand and repeat assurances of the mother that they are not allowed. But their attentions work one after another in a child's mind, and their little methods of repeating children's dispositions, directions, their blood, and salvaging them before they get into a family. One who is kind and delightful in the nursery often may come into help feeling that for these people there ought to be a special kind of reward, when they are not understood. It is probably in ordinary circumstances that the child will be the most successful in the nursery. A disturbing influence. And the same applies to the friend who by means of playing is almost certainly the most successful in the nursery. A disturbing influence. "PLYMOUTH"

The Advent of the New Plymouth means that the standard by which buyers have been accustomed to judge automobiles in the very moderate price field must be entirely revised.

The new Plymouth is so much more attractive, so much roomier—it presents that appearance of quality which is so much more evident—and its price is so exceedingly low—that its value is nothing less than phenomenal.

"CHRYSLER 65"

The new Chrysler "65" is an entirely new conception of motor car style. Chrysler has taken details which for years have been accepted as impossible of change or improvement in motor cars and has made out of them an utterly charming ensemble, an entirely new mode.

Not are the improvements in the Chrysler "65" solely a matter of external design and internal fittings. Chrysler has gone far beyond anything ever previously accomplished in the chassis design of the new Chrysler "65."

WATER
In the valley below the Railway bridge on the main road, the dirty pools of an attenuated stream are used openly for bathing purposes and the surrounding area is infested with brushwood and makes of these pools a breeding place of the year to improve bathing facilities. In all districts the water is very interesting to know how many people there are suffering from any definite disease are below par in their general health. And this is supposed to be the nerve centre of a highly white settlement! It is unlikely to carry any conviction to a visitor and the ordinary resident is long to see the conditions. But, what we have been told is, in all cases, wrong and that it is no valid reason for the equator and neglect which the Town Council and the Government persist to continue year after year.

RAILWAY DEVELOPMENT IN TANGANYIKA.

Linking the Tanga Line with the Central System.

KENYA TO CAPE IDEAL.

General Manager's Important Statement upon Recent Reconstructions.

An important statement on future railway developments in Tanganyika was made recently by the Hon. Sir Salama Chamber of Commerce by Colonel Maxwell, General Manager of Railways in Tanganyika Territory.

One of the points to which Colonel Maxwell gave attention was the linking of the Tanga Line with the Central Railway which is a revival of an old German idea. He pointed out that this is the first part of the large scheme for an Imperial link through East Africa from Kenya to the Cape. A route from Tanga to Dodoma is apparently favoured by the General Manager and a survey is in progress.

Colonel Maxwell also outlined a number of schemes under consideration for the extension of railway facilities to the Southern Highlands and mentioned several routes where surveys have taken place.

The question of finance is a difficult one and extension of the railway to Kenya could be provided only of interest for a number of years.

Colonel Maxwell also indicated that the Government of Tanganyika was not anxious to develop road transport under consideration as they would thereby interfere with private enterprise.

Flour Prices Reduced

The wholesale prices of all our different grades of wheat flour and atta have been materially reduced as from October 1st, and no doubt bakers and storekeepers will make corresponding reductions to the public when their existing stocks have been cleared.

Since the early part of 1926 the wholesale price of our superfine white flour has been reduced by nearly 30%.

The latest reductions have been made possible by co-operation between the wheat growers, who have agreed to a reduction in the price of wheat, and the two leading millers (Unga Limited of Njoro, and the Kenya Grain Mills Ltd. of Nairobi) These millers have reduced their prices to figures which will be absolutely unprofitable, even with the reduced price of wheat, unless their combined sales are increased by 5,000 bags of flour per month. They have made the reductions in the belief that such an increase is possible.

CORRESPONDENCE

NAIROBI/TELUKA ROAD

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir—Your issue of the 17th inst. contains a notice regarding the proposed extension of the Kenya A.C. and C.R. Railway to the coast. I am writing to you to express my opinion on this matter.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir—There is a great number of people in Nairobi who are opposed to the extension of the railway to the coast. I am writing to you to express my opinion on this matter.

The result is that the railway is being extended to the coast. This will be a great benefit to the people of Nairobi and the surrounding areas.

One of the main reasons for the extension of the railway to the coast is the fact that it will provide a direct link between Nairobi and the coast.

It will also provide a means of transport for the people of Nairobi and the surrounding areas. This will be a great benefit to the people of Nairobi and the surrounding areas.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir—On the 13th inst. a large number of people in Nairobi were driven to the coast by the O.M.K. Club. This was a great benefit to the people of Nairobi and the surrounding areas.

As the car was driven to the coast, it was found that the car was in a very poor state of repair. This was a great disappointment to the people of Nairobi and the surrounding areas.

My suggestion is that all cars should have a regular inspection. This will be a great benefit to the people of Nairobi and the surrounding areas.

TRUE HISTORY OF ANGLO-FRENCH NAVAL COMPROMISE.

White Paper Which Seeks to Remove Suspicion.

REDUCTION OF ARMAMENTS.
 An Earnest Effort to Carry out the Intentions of the League Covenant.

White Paper dealing with the Anglo-French proposals for the limitation of naval armaments was issued this evening.

It is a comprehensive document covering the history of the negotiations leading up to an exchange of Notes containing terms of the proposed compromise and subsequent correspondence with other chief naval powers.

As the result of unauthorized and incomplete disclosure the compromise became the object of public speculation and criticism, and it is believed the White Paper clears the matter in its true perspective.

THE BRITISH CASE.

In a circular despatch to British representatives in the League of Nations, the British Government has explained its position on the subject of naval armaments. The despatch states that the British Government has always been in favour of a reduction of naval armaments, and that it has always been in favour of a limitation of naval armaments.

Two months later the Naval Conference met in Geneva only to break down after seven weeks of fruitless discussion.

THE SULTAN OF MUSCAT AND OMAN.

A Comprehensive Tour of Britain.

SOME IMPRESSIONS

(BY STANBAED - CORRESPONDENT.)

The Sultan of Muscat and Oman (Said bin Taimur bin Sultan bin Turki), this week accompanied the guests of His Majesty the Queen, and will remain here for some months. He was presented to the Queen at Balmoral on July 20. His Highness arrived in England from which he is now departing at Glasgow, on Saturday, for London, where he will be received by Lt.-Col. J. E. P. Wilson, (Political A.D.C. to the Secretary for India) on behalf of the Secretary for India, Mr. Buxton Thomas (British Agent in Muscat), and Mr. Ernest J. Dwyer, (British Consular Representative in Muscat).

Wearing a smartly fitting grey morning suit, with a grey top hat, and carrying a walking stick, the Sultan, in the orthodox English fashion, His Highness was warmly greeted by the Government's representatives, and with Mr. Buxton Thomas as his interpreter, was seen engaged in animated conversation with those around him. It was in this country of my native land, that I am deeply touched by the cordiality shown to me by His Majesty the King, and by the hospitality to be extended to me by the British Government. I fully realize the great value of this country to myself. The friendly relations between us are to me a source of pride.

Comprehensive Tour

A most comprehensive programme has been arranged for the enjoyment of the Sultan. The day will be spent more or less in London, with his headquarters at the Hyde Park Hotel, but the second half of the week will be filled in, visiting beauty spots in the country, and in Scotland, Wales, and Ireland, whilst the fourth and last week will be spent in London. On Sunday His Highness visited Westminster Abbey, afterwards attending the Queen's Dinner at the Grosvenor, and also in the grass of the Elysium, Waterloo in Westminster Abbey, afterwards visiting the House of Parliament with the Queen's Household, as his first duty. This latter, secretary to the Lord Great Chamberlain, as his first duty. In the afternoon he visited Windsor Castle.

One of the greatest trials of his busy day is the number of times he has to change his dress, and the effort necessary arranged for his entertainment has proved somewhat such enjoyment, the kind of clothes he and his suite should wear. Every minute of his day is planned. On Monday morning he was wearing the personal views of official occasions. His turban was of green cotton, in which each royal blue, deep crimson, and gold prominent. The simple folds of his Arab dress were of black cloth, and with a white turban of the best quality of wool.

He does not speak English, but his impressions on his visit to Britain were interpreted, and the "Punch" Standard" public takes the following:-

"...visiting through the focus of the revolution. I was much impressed with the equipment of architecture and with the recreation, and St. Stephen's Chapel particularly interested me. The picture of Nelson, and the one depicting the meeting between Wellington and Blücher after Waterloo are also very fine."

In the evening his Highness witnessed the performance of "This Year of Grace" at the London Pavilion.

Most of Tuesday was spent at the Oval watching the Champion Country. East of England match. His Highness was also received by the Earl of Birmingham at the India Office, and received from him the insignia of a Knight Commander of the Indian Empire. In the evening he saw "Clara in Clover" at the Adelphi Theatre.

On Wednesday the Royal Mint and the British Museum was visited. On Thursday, the Olympic Stadium, followed by a tour of the Tower of London, and the work display was given. His location, tomorrow (Friday), the tour of the country was first with a visit to Parliament, lunch with the Admiral Superintendent of Admiralty House, and a trip in a submarine. Southampton and London. Other towns included in the Sultan's itinerary are Thames, Oxford, Cambridge, Stamford, Jersey, Mont, York, Ripon, Durham, Helston, Edinburgh, The Trossachs, Glasgow, Lifford, Winterton, Chester, Dublin, Limerick, Killybegs, Coleraine, Holyhead, finishing with tea with Lady Wilson at Mount Radham, Herts.

The geographical position of Muscat makes friendly relations with this country of special importance, particularly in view of the air route to the East. This commercial air route must always be through Zanzibar, but in times of trouble the value of a friendly Muscat over which compliance can pass would be emphasized.

NEW PLYMOUTH
"PLYMOUTH"
The Advent of the New Plymouth means that the standard by which buyers have been accustomed to judge automobiles in the very moderate price field must be entirely revised.

The new Plymouth is so much more attractive, so much roomier-it presents that appearance of quality which is so much more evident--and its price is so exceedingly low--that its value is nothing less than phenomenal.

CHRYSLER SIX - FOUR

CHRYSLER 65
The new Chrysler "65" is an entirely new conception of motor car style. Chrysler has taken details which for years have been accepted [as] impossible of change or improvement in motor cars and has made out of them an utterly charming ensemble, an entirely new model.

Not are the improvements in the Chrysler "65" solely a matter of external design and internal fittings. Chrysler has gone far beyond anything ever previously accomplished in the chassis design of the new Chrysler "65."

NAIROBI REQUIRES A PROPER CLEANSING DEPARTMENT.

Present Farc of Native Children Playing at Work.

TO-DAY'S "HORRIBLE EXAMPLE"

Providence Comes to the Aid of the Mayor and Town Councilors.

The rain yesterday made Nairobi look cleaner than it has for months. But that was accidental rather than the Mayor and Councilors who are really responsible for the cleanliness of the Capital.

To-day attention is directed to one or two notorious spots in the centre of the town.

What is required, in fact, is a properly organized Cleansing Department, properly staffed, and properly financed, as the case in all large towns.

The present method of employing a few native children is farcical and a menace to public health.

BIG SCALE WORK NEEDED.

Providence came yesterday to the aid of those responsible for the cleanliness of Nairobi but one shower of rain does not make the streets of a city clean.

Nairobi requires in a heavy down-pour of rain, that is, that the streets are clean and that the dirt and large filth which are scattered about the streets are removed.

It is not sufficient to employ a few native children to do the work. A properly organized Cleansing Department is needed.

There are three main areas in Nairobi which require attention. These are the areas of the Municipal Office, the area of the Government House, and the area of the Municipal Office.

Flour Prices Reduced

The wholesale prices of all our different grades of wheat flour and atta have been materially reduced since from October 1st, and no doubt bakers and storekeepers will make corresponding reductions to the public when their existing stocks have been cleared.

Since the early part of 1926 the wholesale price of our superfine white flour has been reduced by nearly 30%.

The latest reductions have been made possible by co-operation between the wheat growers, who have agreed to a reduction in the price of wheat, and the two leading millers (Unga Limited of Njoro, and the Kenya Grain Mills Ltd., of Nairobi). These millers have reduced their prices to figures which will be absolutely unprofitable, even with the reduced price of wheat, unless their combined sales are increased by 5,000 bags of flour per month. They have made the reductions in the belief that such an increase is possible.

East Africa in London.

Personal Notes and News.

(STANDARD CORRESPONDENT.)

London, September 26.

I have very good reports indeed of the interest now being taken in East African affairs. I am especially referring to the general interest. It would appear that in East Africa there is a general feeling of confidence in the future of the continent, and a feeling of interest in the progress of the continent. It is not surprising that I had to mention the fact that the interest in the continent is not confined to the office of the "East African Standard" in London, but is also being shown in the office of the "East African Standard" in Nairobi.

This is some criticism made of the newspaper which gives of the fact in the "East African Standard" in Nairobi. It is not surprising that I had to mention the fact that the interest in the continent is not confined to the office of the "East African Standard" in London, but is also being shown in the office of the "East African Standard" in Nairobi.

It has been reported that for Philip Manning, the Under-Secretary for Africa, will have had a long stay in London in a flying visit at the end of the month in a flying visit to the Government of the United Kingdom. It is not surprising that I had to mention the fact that the interest in the continent is not confined to the office of the "East African Standard" in London, but is also being shown in the office of the "East African Standard" in Nairobi.

The Rev. A. F. Matthews, formerly Minister of the British Church in Nairobi, is now in London in a flying visit to the Government of the United Kingdom. It is not surprising that I had to mention the fact that the interest in the continent is not confined to the office of the "East African Standard" in London, but is also being shown in the office of the "East African Standard" in Nairobi.

The "Manchester Guardian" publishes the following in connection with the alleged British consular case in London. It is not surprising that I had to mention the fact that the interest in the continent is not confined to the office of the "East African Standard" in London, but is also being shown in the office of the "East African Standard" in Nairobi.
