THE DE SOTO SIX

Features Which Make The De Soto Six Outstanding

APPEARANCE: You will like the appearance of the De Soto Six. Everyone does. It displays a harmony of line and color that is good to look at. People do not always take the trouble to analyze why, but they do like its looks. It is new. It is refreshing.

DETAILS: Hundreds of details in the De Soto Six immediately attract your eyes. The slope and angle of the seat cushions are skillfully calculated to provide the most restful comfort. The controls are placed to respond to the simplest touch. The hood lamp control lever is mounted atop the steering wheel and the instruments are compactly grouped and indirectly lighted. There is an automatic windshield wiper, ignition lock, stop light, and an electric fuel gauge.

QUALITY: Only the production genius of Chrysler makes the De Soto Six possible at a price so low. The appointments of the body models would do justice to cars of twice their cost: fine upholstering materials in mohair and genuine leather; axle type cushion springs; exclusive design hardware in the attractive Butler finish; composite construction of hardwood and steel, soundly anchored and braced.

PRICE:

BOX BODY	£280
ROADSTER	£310

Managers' efforts for this afternoon. Trimm plays the full back to be taken by O'Connell, a three-quarter, while the half-back line has an unaccompanied look about it with Hays being out. Forward line, with Lacey and Wainwright missing, and they are a pair who are their best players.

The strength and composition of the Ruims team in opposition to O'Connell at the time of writing. It can be assumed, up to the time of writing, that the Ruims are a pair who are their best players.

For the most part Nondescripts' play mainly the absence of Hays, a three-quarter. Indeed, it is in that position that the Ruims have their greatest strength. The pack of Nondescripts is a quite a formidable one, and the Ruims are in no way inferior to them.

A Letter From Paris.

pleated skirt is accompanied by a slip-length, see coat, cut quite straight down the front and featuring at the neck with a large bow of self-material. The white muslin blouse, round, complete the ensemble is smartly tucked in horizontal lines round the waist, and in a vertical pattern from shoulders to hem.

What makes garments tucked, pleated or gathered into very smart and dainty features of the new and old, tailored mode. Some are cleverly run to the length, with a correct finish at the neck; others, more feminine, are completed by charming little collars edged with knitted fringe, and have a delicate machine to the waist.

Beasts for sports are made in a new very simple style, as well as in superline felt and cloth. The latter have been covered in a cross-stitch pattern in the greatest of colors. A another military novelty—some which might be copied at home, give a good shape to use as pattern.

Delightful little feminine hangings of natural furs are made with the pretty "fennel" weaving backs of the moment. Fewer shades and hip pieces are worn, and several fabrics are of new independent of other natural or artificial furs. Some are distinguished by the daytime, and others, or leather, according to the type, color, or texture.

Black or past-colored antelope show for evening wear are hand-painted with flowers that make the floral design on the printed cloth or mousseline fabric, an idea for the amateur artist!

The "matching skirt" among the size they spread over to show. In the French holiday season there is a naturally, "fashion" in dogs, with polka-dot and striped first becoming among the large breeds. Apart from these, "Bathings" were brought forward and, of course, the lovely Polka-dot, have things very much their own way. It is amazing to see how many of the "new" fashions, which were introduced with demerit at the end of last season, have been made to match their owners' fashions.

WATS WITH GOLD FOWL.

Get the most of a cold fowl into good-sized pieces. Heat up an egg or two (according to the quantity of meat) with a little grated nutmeg, pepper, salt, minced parsley, and some bread-crumbs; blend well together and cover the pieces of meat with this mixture. Fry light brown in hot fat. Thicken a little gravy with cornstarch, add a large teaspoonful of hotchotch, blend thoroughly and cook for a few minutes. Arrange the meat on a hot dish, pour the sauce over and round it, and garnish with slices of lemon and leaf.

There is another way of dealing with cold poultry. Cook the meat in salt water, add by them two or three onions. Put the fried meat and onions into a sheepskin with a tablespoonful of nutmeg powder, a teaspoonful of brown sugar, a chopped apple, some salt and water, grave of garlic, and salt. Cover with water, gravy, or stock. Non-iron eye or three large spoonfuls of cream with a little of creamed egg. Add two ounces of melted butter, the juice of a lemon and a sprinkling of salt. Add this mixture to the contents of the pan and boil up once only; do not allow to stew again. Spice may be added if the curry powder is not highly seasoned.

ROUEN POTATOES.

While on holiday in France I managed to obtain this recipe for making a dish in Rouen. It is also very excellent for use of using up cold boiled potatoes. Heat butter or cold lard in a frying-pan till smooth, add a tablespoonful of flour and onion. Then add the potatoes, make them quite soft. Season with salt and pepper. In a small or large dish cover with a layer of cold cream. Cook in a moderate oven till the cheese is nicely browned, and serve at once.

To Avoid Stomach Disorder After Quinine.

A SPECIALIST'S WAY.

No satisfactory substitute has yet been found to replace quinine in the prevention and cure of malaria and other febrile diseases, and many people refuse to take the necessary quinine for the cure of stomach disorders that follow the use of quinine, especially when the stomach is indigestible. Quinine, taken quinine, may after the use of quinine, you will find that all other effects can be completely avoided by taking the half-strength of "Bismarck" Magnesia in a little water before the quinine. This neutralizes the excess acid that quinine in any form always creates, and makes it responsible for the discomfort so often experienced after quinine. "Bismarck" Magnesia forms a protective, acid-neutralizing coating, over the entire stomach lining, so that direct irritation of the stomach is completely impossible. "Bismarck" Magnesia is a completely reliable remedy for the cure of stomach disorders. It is the only "Bismarck" Magnesia that is completely reliable. This elegant model is carried out in very fine, soft, de-ohair, the finely pleated skirt edged with pale pink silk, over an elasticated bodice and sleeveless. Rows of ganging over the shoulders regulate the fullness of the simple bodice.

Dainty lingerie finishes to frocks and suits are immediately in evidence. Even a formal bodice of black satin is made more attractive by the addition of a turnover collar of embroidered organza; cut in one with a little vest which fastens up to the throat with tiny fancy pearl buttons. The matching pointed cuffs are similarly effective on the long elbow-length sleeves. This particular gown is made with a three-quarter length skirt and has the bodice edged with black silk, the top V point embroidered with small black dots and having the bodice edged with black silk. The top V point is cut in one with the top V point, so to speak.

Tulle suits are in high favour for formal morning and informal afternoon wear. It is especially attractive in the form of a dress for it has an amiable habit of clinging to the body in all occasions. A black "mou-de-ha" affair, complete illustrates the prevailing mode in a most original way, the dark background of the material being decorated with little bands of white. The side-

Developed in wearing little coats these days, the two detached belt very representative of our choice for different occasions. The first is a very practical model in body printed material, bound with plain silk to match the other colour in the pattern. Next comes the tiny coat of flowered tulle, with even collar, cuffs and hem finished with little bands of the fabric.
