CHEVROLET SIX

CHEVROLET

A Product of General Motors.

There's one sure way to get greater value in a low priced car. Choose a Six. This is a greater value is instantly obvious when you drive a Chevrolet Six. In every gear and at every speed there's a refreshing freedom from all the annoyances that are caused by vibration. There's no tremor in the steering wheel—no rattles in the floorboards—no rumbles or drumming in the body.

Its six cylinder smoothness saves the entire car from the strain and wear from vibration—prolongs the life of the car—lowers cost of maintenance. This, together with its seasonally low fuel and oil consumption, add to Chevrolet's traditional reputation for economical transportation.

Please accept our invitation for a free demonstration ride at your convenience—and let the car itself prove its story of value.

Better than Ever Before

HERE'S THE 12/15-N in conception and design but with the same amazing reliability which marked the famous little 8/15.

This new 12/15 marks a great step forward in the motor construction. It has a range of power, of speed, of economy, of accessibility such as only the most modern of engineering can give.

It is silent and flexible four cylinder engine not dependent on revolutions for power, resulting in length of life and greater economy, not giving amazing acceleration and speed.

A finish comparable with the most expensive cars containing all the fine points of the highest 1939 models.

Before you decide on any other car see this 12/15.

AN INTERESTING JOURNEY

Mr. Galloway writes as follows: I have just returned from an interesting tour which included touring from Kampala to Bulabula, and then returning to Kampala via Mwanza and Mwanza I thought that it was worth mentioning to our readers.

The Township of Diga is going ahead very rapidly indeed, and new buildings are springing up on all sides. The Diga Hotel is being rebuilt and greatly improved by the indefatigable Mr. Howell, who has of late constructed an infirmary, and will I hope very shortly have a full-sized cinema.

The road connecting Diga with the Thompson side of the Nile, via the new Bridge, was in course of completion, about its ready to start. It was finally opened in the large number of motor coaches which are now plying all over Uganda, carrying native passengers.

Manchester, a great pillar of smoke, the height of a single and about twenty yards broad was described. Making the most hideous noise it travelled some miles, heading everything in its way. The terrific commotion as it frightened the cattle, that they ran away and were thereby frightened, it passed over a meadow, and laid its nose with the ground as if it had been loaded down by feet it went through a wood and turned on the trees by the way. Coming into a field full of water it was to Whaley Bridge, where it was to Whaley Bridge, pushed up some houses, and disappeared with the clouds. During the excitement it belatedly returned. After that it made for the Embsay hills and vanished. Two hundred and fifty years ago people had a little more superstition than they are now. There is little doubt that our thought the devil was on that day, and presumed a right into somewhere under the upland!

In Search of Economy— with Efficiency.

The debate in the Legislature commenced upon the Waste-Reuse Report and the acceptance by Government of a motion desiring consideration of the proposals for the reduction of the public expenditure while increasing efficiency, was regarded as an indication of the intention of the Executive Members to press, during the next few months, for economy in the Government. UNITED STATES OF EUROPE.

The reply expresses the faint sympathy with this purpose and an earnest hope that France's initiative will promote a better understanding of the economic interests of the European States...

The progress on this question depends on the extent that the Governments and public opinion in the various countries are brought to realize the vital importance of their common interests and the advantages such will derive from increasing greater international solidarity...

Question of Method.

The reply continues. It is not however, of the method proposed by the French Government for the United States Government...

If they have rightly understood the proposals contained in the memorandum the French Government suggest the creation of a new European conference and executive committee and perhaps also of a new French Government...

Since the organs of the League have already begun work on the basis of the programme of procedure which the League has adopted...

well, and a skirt with rather wide pleats might be chosen. If fitted skirts as a useful alternative for the middle of the season, they should perfectly fit the waist and flare a little at the bottom, while the bodice should be white and black in the same pattern, of course, but then the skirt may be of any color.

Pyjama Coats.

The frock which has a bodice in contrast to the skirt is an attractive idea of the moment. If the skirt is black and white the bodice should be white and black in the same pattern, of course, but then the skirt may be of any color.

The one good model to follow is the small bellows type of three-quarter style. It is good to have the longer coat look like a wrap of silk, or better still, to have a little of fabric material. The dress is called upon to make it long and a frock suit of equally "correct" for afternoon and smart morning wear.

MEASURING MEETS FOR THE HOME DRESSMAKER

Many have difficulty at making clothes. Not that (because of the workmanship, but owing to lack of some of the necessary measurements. Correct measurement is essential for success.

In measuring the bust, pin the tape round the fullest part of the chest, under the arms, across the breasts, and include all folds. Breathe normally while the measure is being taken.

Measure tightly round the waist, allowing plenty straight for the

Every description of Building and Contracting work undertaken with all kinds of materials. B. S. SIRDAW. Manager, Mulubi Street.

Here are three new styles of the middle of the year. The first is a smart little affair in sporty style with a white crisp collar and a red bow. The second is an adorable affair of flowered fabric with three lovely little tails by way of trimming. The third is a dress of the same fabric, but with a high collar and a stand-up collar lined with plain cloth to look like a fur collar.

Among the lovely materials that the designers are suggesting for frocks and suits just now are some kinds of rayon. They are softer and lighter, and they hang beautifully, having more resilience than cotton, or silk. Fabrics and being more readily cleaned.

A delightful frock and suit was developed in black wool with tiny white vertical scattered flecks over it. The bodice was light-colored with very much concealed in the figure. The skirt was flared, but all the fullness over the hips was eliminated for the material was of very fine, three-quarter length. The hem was fashioned in wide, shallow scalloped edge with fine fluting, which also finished the neck and the sleeves.

With the frock worn a short bolero, also edged with fluting; it had half-sleeves, reduced to half-length at the elbow with more fluting which gave the chic effect of the one double sleeve. There was a second row to this ensemble of three-quarter length, and it had a small collar of very dark grey. This, of course, was intended to be worn on dull, chilly days.

Fashion for Next Year.

Next is favored to the woolen garments is knitwear. Which is good. It might well be said that this is a three-piece suit which will be "right" on the days, and of which the dress section can be worn with a slightly heavier look on cold days.

Now I say that black and white is the contrast choice? If it does not find favor, however, there is blue-and-white or red-and-white. The color and white, should be avoided if the opportunity never is worth especially for people who are to remember how many times they have seen at nothing a failure!

Now that there is a plan of full tone in the skirt. Fashioned just hips, be sure to pass the tape over the high bones—just past above. And do not try to squeeze into less complete than usual, or the garment will be tight and uncomfortable.

A suggestion for a debutante's toilette: the dress is made of white silk and sport the bodice consisting, the skirt full and giving a gentle part bias outline the waist and a pretty haughty little high collar. The top is fashioned of past beads with an edging of the net.

Many amateur dressmakers fall because they do not cut arm openings correctly. Careful measurement will remedy this. The tape is fixed well under the arm, let it touch shoulder points below, and take the measurement rather tightly.

For arm length of bodice, measure from lower end of neck to wrist in front. For back length, from the same line through to lower back to waist. For the shoulder, run the tape from neck to shoulder point for under-arm, from hollow (under arm) to waist.

When making the sleeve measurement, the outside distance should be from shoulder line to wrist over the back elbow. For inside measurement, from hollow of elbow to wrist.

For a skirt, measure front, sides and back. And, to ensure correct results, have a try on tape drawn lightly round waist to measure to suit.

Visiting Naval Team in Great Form.
SEVEN VICTORIES OUT OF 10 CONTESTS.

Two Very Useful Additions to the Game in Kenya.

The Visiting Naval Team, who were packed to capacity on Friday night on the occasion of the boxing between members of the party from H.M.S. "Eclair" and representatives of the general arena.

It proved to be a most enjoyable evening, the boxing generally being of a high standard, while that of the locals was to the full extent.

The winners of the tournament really went to the limit, the ship sending up Nairobi to a very creditable total. Of the 10 fights, H.M.S. "Eclair" took seven, while one local was drawn.

The following were the officials in charge of the proceedings: Referee: Commander A. Ferguson; H.M.S. Lt. Langens, R.N.; Mr. J. Henderson, Dr. A. C. King; Dr. J. Walker; Mr. R. J. Stock; Mr. C. G. Egan, M.C.; Mr. D. D. Knott; Hon. Secretary, Mr. T. L. L. L.

Myers vs. Robertson.
The contest was a feather-weight bout between Mr. E. Myers (120 lbs.) and E. M. Robertson (120 lbs.) of Nairobi.

Both boys made the fight exciting, while Myers frequently was better during the middle part, with right jab to the body. There was little to choose between the parties, and the result went to Myers by the narrowest of margins.

Manuel vs. Whiting.
In the second of the preliminary bouts of the tournament, the local fighter, Manuel (120 lbs.), was defeated by Whiting (120 lbs.) of the Navy, who is a successor to Krivy being and is a very useful acquisition to the party.

Hinton vs. Shipman.
A light-weight bout was put on the bill between Hinton W. Hinton (120 lbs.) and C. H. Shipman (120 lbs.) of the Naval T.C.A.

The proved to be a well-fought affair. From the first going both sailed into each other in a vigorous contest, each being quite satisfied with the exchange early on, being the latter time.

Shipman led slightly the better of the exchange early on, being the latter time. He showed the better of the exchange early on, being the latter time.

Hilling vs. Kilian.
A Kilian (120 lbs.) of Nairobi fought as a substitute for W. F. Dya of Nairobi who was unable to get to town, in a preliminary contest against Beaman F. Billing (120 lbs.).

Finlay vs. Feijana.
The first bout of the programme was between Finlay and Feijana. Billing proved to be the most stylish boxer of the evening and was completely fit good for the "black man" who was able to win with his punches—they either broke his body or were simply taken on the gloves. It was a very interesting and exciting contest. Kilian was quite good.

The contest immediately before the interval was between two local fighters, one of whom was a very good boxer. The other was a very good boxer.

The second round was very well fought, and the winner was the local fighter. The contest was very exciting and the winner was the local fighter.
