ANOTHER POLITICAL ASSASSINATION

Shooting and Bomb Outrages in Tokio.

JAPANESE PREMIER MURDERED BY YOUNG OFFICERS.

A Militarist Movement.

SIMULTANEOUS ATTACKS IN VARIOUS PARTS OF CITY.

Political assassination has taken place, this time in Tokio, where the aged Premier, Mr. Iwano, has been shot by a party of young naval officers and military cadets who related the violence.

The raiders forced an entry into the Premier's residence firing at all who attempted to bar their way, and finally shot the Premier while the latter was talking to a visitor. He died later, after desperate efforts to save his life.

Simultaneously with the murder of the Premier, a number of bomb outrages were committed in various parts of the city, the missiles being thrown at buildings housing one of the political parties, banks, the police and one of the newspapers.

These acts were also perpetrated by men in naval or military uniform, and handbills which have been distributed indicate that the outrages were organized by an extreme militarist movement.

Reports from the Premier, who vigorously fought his attackers, no other fatalities occurred, although a number of people were wounded.

Resignation of Cabinet.

Prime Minister's Resignation. Tokyo, May 16. (The Associated Press.)—The Premier of Japan has been seriously wounded by a bullet which struck him in the chest.

The Premier was taken to a hospital where he is being treated. It is expected that he will recover.

It is believed that the Premier's resignation will be announced in the next few days.

Political Movements. Outrages Will Not Be Co-ordinated.

The outrages were not co-ordinated and it is believed that they were the work of a small group of young officers.

It is expected that the Premier's resignation will be announced in the next few days.

RESTRICTION IN SEAL PRODUCTION

Sealings by London Paper.

NEED FOR AGREEMENT.

See Above and Under Second Column.

"The Daily Herald," a London public utility, writes, in the April 27th issue, to emphasize in favor of a restriction in seal production, and that it would then develop an opportunity of supplying the seal market with sealings of a quality that will not prevent over-production of sealings in the United Kingdom.

The seal market in the United Kingdom was a problem in 1926, and it is again a problem in 1927. The seal market in the United Kingdom was a problem in 1926, and it is again a problem in 1927. The seal market in the United Kingdom was a problem in 1926, and it is again a problem in 1927.

"The Daily Herald" also writes some of his adventures. One morning he found a handkerchief in his pocket. It had a red seal on the back with a star and a cross. He had a chance to get back to his job in the body of the car but he did not.

REMARKABLE BOWLING BY EDWARDS.

[STANDARD'S CORRESPONDENT.]

LONDON, Monday, Sept. 1. — Cricket, wherever it is played, has not had a better day for some time. The weather has been marvellous for the occasion, and the matches since the opening have been of a high standard. The only century was scored by Lewis, who made 100 runs in the first innings.

The game at Bradford was a complete Yorkshire hat-trick, the main cause of this being the fact that the weather was so good that the remaining three or four Test matches, particularly the one at Leeds, will be of a high standard. The Yorkshire hat-trick was a complete one, as the batsmen were not able to make any runs. The bowlers were of a high standard, and the game was a complete hat-trick.
