The Last Despatches of Colonel Fawcett.

ARCHIE POWERS.

Series of Notes Edited by W. Stone.

Letters and despatches written from South America by Colonel P. H. Fawcett last in May 1912, but before he vanished on his expedition to the jungle of Mato Grosso, which included the party's progress up the Rio Negro and exploration of the region. The expedition, which was composed of three parties, was not completely successful in its mission. It was the last expedition of the kind, and was the last expedition of the kind, and was the last expedition of the kind.

Forwarded. It is most to be regretted that a fully illustrated edition has not been published on the edge of this continent. It is a book from time to time. In fact, it is a book from time to time. In fact, it is a book from time to time. In fact, it is a book from time to time.

What is Wrong with Lake Fish Industry?

ONCE WORTH £50,000 A YEAR - NOW LESS THAN £10,000.

The Nairobi Market.

PROSPECTS OF INCREASING SUPPLIES AND REDUCING PRICE.

The average daily catch of fish in the Karisungu Gulf is estimated at 20,000 lbs. This number, some 5,000 only, are sent to Nairobi.

The fishing industry for a period of years was worth £50,000 net annu. To-day its value is not £10,000.

During 1921 nets costing Shs. 40,000, were stolen from 250 Gull fishermen.

An Kilimanjaro fish are sold for a shilling. In Nairobi they fetch 10 to 20 cents each.

United States Dollar at a Discount.

SIGNIFICANT STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT HOOVER.

Gold Reserves Reduced.

DEMAND FOR FURTHER TAXATION AND ECONOMIES.

The American gold reserve had been considerably reduced during the past few weeks and the dollar stood at a discount abroad as a statement made by President Hoover in an address to the United States Senate.

"This must be stopped and the situation demand further sacrifices," he added.

President Hoover demanded further economies and the imposition of new measures of taxation in order to balance the country's finances.

MAKE THE CHARM OF EAST AFRICA KNOWN

The East African Standard
publishes photographs of East African interest for publication more particularly such as are concerned with topography in the territories or illustrative of the character of the countries.
The name and address of the sender and the nature of the subject must be written on the back of the print. Prints or slides may be used for enlargement purposes. If photographs are sent, they should be accompanied by a letter explaining the subject, and this will be accompanied by a certificate of receipt signed by the Editor of the Standard. Photographs sent to the Standard are returned and those by the sender.

How the Derby Was Won.

WINNER'S FINE EFFORT AT END OF THE RACE.

Dramatic Finish.

STRONGLY FANCIER ORWELL COMES IN NINTH.

Orwell's defeat in the Derby came as a big disappointment to many people who had pinned their hopes on Mr. Singer's colt which could only finish ninth.

Cockney figured strongly in the early part of the race. While the ultimate winner was finally indicated well into the race the Field still strode ahead on the outside to win in the last hundred yards.

The Event described.

London, June 2.—The Derby took place at Epsom on Wednesday, June 2, the most distinguished event since the war for the result in racing. The atmosphere was electric and the race was watched by hundreds of thousands of people. The winner, Fanny, was ridden by Mr. J. W. Porter. The race was a dramatic finish, with Fanny leading by a length, with several close runners. The betting was £10 to 1 for Fanny. The race was a triumph for the British flag.

Mr. Singer's Colt.

Mr. Singer's colt, which was the favorite, was ridden by Mr. J. W. Porter. It finished ninth in the race. The colt was a big disappointment to many people who had pinned their hopes on it.

Winner's Great Effort.

When Tattenham Court was reached, Fanny still held its lead by a length. The race was a dramatic finish, with Fanny leading by a length, with several close runners. The betting was £10 to 1 for Fanny. The race was a triumph for the British flag.

KENYA AND UGANDA TRADE. WHY LEGAL ACTION COULD NOT PROCEED. EMPLOYEES BUILDING UP KNOWLEDGE AND PATIENCE. Sir Edward Gigg on the Ombuds Conference. GRANTS TO GIVE A LEAD.

INTERESTING JUDGMENT.

When we report made by a committee of inquiry and the fact that the Government had not taken any steps to deal with the situation...

In his judgment, the Chief Justice of the High Court has said that the Government should have taken more steps to deal with the situation...

There were officers of the Government who had been appointed to deal with the situation, but they had not done their duty...

It had been agreed on behalf of the Government to give a grant to the Ombuds Conference, but the Government had not done so...

Mr. Gigg said that the Government had not done its duty in this matter, and that it should have taken more steps to deal with the situation...

THE WILD LIFE OF WEST AFRICA.

Authorities Studying the Conservation Problem.

GAME RESERVES

Colonel A. H. W. Hayward, S.M.C., C.B., Director, West African Department, London, writes in the 'Wild Life of West Africa' and the conservation of the game of West Africa, and the establishment of game reserves in West Africa. He states that the game of West Africa is being rapidly exterminated, and that the game reserves are being established in West Africa to conserve the game.

Conservation of Wild Life.

The chief factors leading to the extermination of wild animals in West Africa are the increase of population, the increase of agriculture, and the increase of hunting. The game reserves are being established in West Africa to conserve the game.

Rich in Game.

West Africa is peculiarly rich in game. It is a rich source of food for the human race, and it is a rich source of pleasure for the sportsman. The game reserves are being established in West Africa to conserve the game.
