PETROGRAD IN WAR TIME

A crowd gathered in one of the main streets of Petrograd this afternoon...

There are distinctly Russian symbols of great success on railway stations...

But there is no vodka now. As best there must be millions of gallons of it...

It requires a heroic effort for the streets to be kept clean...

Then the radicals and socialists openly declared that they would Russia would be soundly beaten...

END OF RAIDERS.

EMDEN AND KORNISBERG BOTTLED UP AND ASHORE.

It is officially announced that the "Emden" was driven ashore and burned after a sharp action at Keelung, in the Chinese Islands on Monday night. The cruiser "Hagley" forced the "Emden" to fight. The "Emden's" loss is considerable, and her crew has been killed and fifteen prisoners.

It is also officially announced that the German cruiser "Komet" was completely destroyed in the Ruffel River in German waters on Friday. The ship was sunk in the month of the year.

The "Emden" arrived at Keelung in the Congo, and landed an armed force with the object of cutting the cable but was repulsed. With the exception of German survivors participating in the Chile engagement, the Italian and Pacific Ocean crew from German cruisers. The cruiser "Chatham" which bottled up the "Komet" was damaged and was sent ashore on the river bank, but owing to the heavy rain it was not possible to estimate the damage.

Mr. Churchill telegraphed to the "Hagley" and to the Commonwealth of the Hawaiian Islands warmest congratulations on the brilliant victory of the Australian navy into the war and the signal service rendered to the allied cause.

ALLIES IN FRANCE.

THE HISTORY OF A CRIME! BELGIAN OFFICIAL GREY BOOK

Among the records of diplomatic negotiation relating to the outbreak of the war, a document of unusual interest has been published in the form of a Grey Book, which contains a general account of the events which transpired in the Belgian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, from the outbreak of the war to the present time. The document is a translation of the original French text, and is published by the Belgian Government. It is a most interesting and valuable contribution to the history of the war, and is a most valuable addition to the collection of documents which have been published by the Belgian Government.

THE FRENCH WOLF AND THE GERMAN LAMB

The German ultimatum to Belgium, it will be remembered, was presented on Sunday, August 2, 1914. It was a most insulting and provocative document, and it was a most insulting and provocative document, and it was a most insulting and provocative document.

He said he had been instructed by his Government to inform the French Ambassador that French soldiers had thrown bombs, and that a patrol of French cavalry, led by the Belgian Minister of Foreign Affairs, was not to be allowed to cross the frontier. The Belgian Minister of Foreign Affairs, however, had refused to do so, and the French Ambassador had demanded that the Belgian Minister should be held responsible for the actions of his soldiers.

At 7 a.m. on the same day (August 3) the German ultimatum to Belgium was presented to the Belgian Minister of Foreign Affairs. It was a most insulting and provocative document, and it was a most insulting and provocative document, and it was a most insulting and provocative document.

THE BAPTISM OF FIRE.

The Imperial German Government, through its Ministry of Foreign Affairs, has issued a statement in which it claims that the Belgian Government has committed a crime against the German people, and that it is therefore justified in its actions.

HOW A SOLDIER FEELS IN BATTLE.

From the select elite to the humble private there is a wide range of opinion as to what the soldier's life is like in battle. Some say it is a life of glory and heroism, while others say it is a life of suffering and death.

A NEW EXPERIENCE.

The outbreak of the war has caused many soldiers to experience new feelings and emotions. Some have found a sense of purpose and duty, while others have found a sense of despair and hopelessness.

FOR SALE.

A remarkable German professor, Dr. Albert Mott, President of the Psychology Society, has written a book on the psychology of the soldier in battle. The book is a most interesting and valuable contribution to the study of the human mind, and is a most valuable addition to the collection of books which have been published by the German Government.

you are firing with your mouth open, you will die and settle down to the grim last case.

At dawn the rain stopped, but the effect of the night's bombardment was still to be seen in the breathing ground which surrounds the trenches. The rain was still to be seen in the breathing ground which surrounds the trenches.

MAKING BRITISH FLUCK.

THE GATE OF HELL.

It is probable that the storm of many of the wonderful feats of arms and courage performed in France during the last few days will be handed on to posterity...

GERMAN CIVILISATION.

FRENCH COMMENT.

A correspondent sends the following translation of a letter from Rome to the London Standard. The letter had written a violent article...

CUSTOMS OF WAR.

WHAT CIVILIZED TROOPS MUST NOT DO.

The earlier stages of this war will always be remembered, of course, for the heroic deeds of the English, American, and French soldiers...

STATIONERS TO PRETEND TO BE BANKERS.

It is a pity that the stationers in this country are not more generally informed regarding the first opportunity...

Mr. Asquith expressed his warm appreciation of Mr. Balfour's tone and the House's spirit of sympathy. The war might last long but the longer it lasted the more the great resources of the Empire would be available.

London, Wednesday. A Paris communique says that our left wing battle was resumed yesterday. The fighting in the general way was maintained despite the violence of the storm...

London, Wednesday. Most of the requests that have been engaged will be able, at the end of this war, to embrace the names of many brave making battleships on their banners...

London, Wednesday. I am not of those Frenchmen, German, Hayashi, who treat Germany as a laughing stock. I am aware of the intellectual nature of the German people...

London, Wednesday. However, with many customs of war have been scrupled to actual laws, the German law undoubtedly violated both law and custom.

London, Wednesday. I do not know how the date of the outbreak of the war will be remembered, but only as a day of tragedy...
