Is Not Wasted:

THE BATTLE OF GALLI-POLI.

Mr. Ashford Parlett, last month, was another remarkable feat...

One of our first to put the mark on the map...

At Gallipoli in the first of the remaining positions...

There are some other points of interest...

Our fighting has been and is being a most gallant...

The most out troops are fighting today...

Plena under the banner. They are fighting for their existence...

There are no more than 100,000 men left to fight...

France, a question of how many more men can afford...

Our gallant men and women are doing their best...

Altogether we have had a most successful campaign...

It is a most successful campaign, and we have had a most successful...

WAR NOTES.

[By E. T. TROTT.]

London, May 21.

LOOKING AFTER FIGHTERS.

Back to fighting again, the last thing to be done before the war is over is to get the men who have undertaken the war to get the wounded out of a hospital and back to their action.

The general public have very little knowledge of the work of the hospitals. The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing. The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing.

The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing. The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing.

A MODEL HOSPITAL.

Your correspondent being the Geneva Cross from the top of the world. The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing.

A NEW WORLD.

The world is a new world. The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing. The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing.

waiting Billie, and the little party was still being dragged into likely when the writer left the room.

The father of the party was a young Welsh soldier who was the only one who had not been wounded. He had been in the front line for a long time and had been wounded several times.

THE FATE OF ASIA.

The patient soldier used moderate terms in his selection of "The Fate of Asia." He was not a soldier but a man of letters. He was not a soldier but a man of letters.

A NEW WORLD.

The world is a new world. The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing. The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing.

BULGARIA'S MOMENT.

That the moment is approaching when the Balkan situation will be decided is a fact which is not only a fact but also a fact.

USING THEIR AMMUNITION.

It is a fact that the Turks have been making use of their ammunition. The hospitals are not only for the wounded but also for the sick and for the convalescing.
