A CHARACTER SKETCH OF M. VENEZELOS.

As a member of the Times staff in Athens, I had the opportunity of observing the life of the man who has been the subject of the sketch in this issue with one of the most intelligent and able members of the Greek press. It is a year and a half since we met at the Greek Club in London, and since that time I have had the opportunity of observing the life of the man who has been the subject of the sketch in this issue with one of the most intelligent and able members of the Greek press.

QUARANTINE AT MOLO.
To THE EDITOR, "EAST AFRICAN STANDARD."
Dear Sir,-For some time past the British press has been publishing statements to the effect that the German army is retreating from the eastern front. It is interesting to note that these statements are contradicted by the reports of the German press.

THE WESTERN FRONT.
Surprise Attack on Labyrinth.
A Paris communique says that the German army has surprised the British army in the Labyrinth.
The British army was taken by surprise and suffered heavy losses. The German army is now in possession of the Labyrinth.
