SLAUGHTER HOUSE METHODS.

Mr. Shillington's Allegations

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS REPLIED.

The following letters from the Municipal Engineer and the Municipal Commissioner in reply to the allegations made by Mr. Shillington were read at the meeting of the Municipal Commission, which was held on December 29—

SLAUGHTER HOUSE COMPLAINTS.

Mr. Shillington's allegations are most serious and I am sorry to say that the statement published in the public press is extremely shocking. It should not be accepted without obtaining evidence.

Mr. Shillington is to be congratulated on his having done his duty in exposing the slaughterhouse which has been found to be in a state of such a filthy condition.

Mr. Shillington is to be congratulated on his having done his duty in exposing the slaughterhouse which has been found to be in a state of such a filthy condition.

Mr. Shillington is to be congratulated on his having done his duty in exposing the slaughterhouse which has been found to be in a state of such a filthy condition.

Mr. Shillington is to be congratulated on his having done his duty in exposing the slaughterhouse which has been found to be in a state of such a filthy condition.

Mr. Shillington is to be congratulated on his having done his duty in exposing the slaughterhouse which has been found to be in a state of such a filthy condition.

In my opinion, Mr. Shillington, to say the least, is exaggerating in stating that he has been obliged to make 50 calls on the butchery. I will bring the matter that always has been the case. The street lighting is done, ever since my appointment four days ago. I have not been to the street lighting since then and in the whole of my experience I have never taken more than four calls a day on, and that upon very exceptional occasions.

You yourself have seen a great number of calls and will bear me out in saying that five or six calls a day would be required to call a boy.

Major Ronalds, Capt. Reid, V. O. Hansen, the Serp Morph in charge of the Military Police, and Mr. Hume are not in the statement.

I had I say that any unusual expense was likely to occur I would certainly have accompanied him to where he was standing, but on the night of the 29th I was not there. The man who was being taken to the hospital was not there. I was quite close to where I was taking a boy, but I did not see him. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital.

I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital.

I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital.

I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital.

I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital.

I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital. I was taking a boy to the hospital and I was taking a boy to the hospital.

GOA MUNICIPAL REPRESENTATION.

To THE EDITOR, "East Africa Standard." Sir—This is now complete with the names of all that are qualified to vote...

The registration of names is the same, or in another way a decisive factor, upon which the registration of the representatives will have to rest...

The number of names had been for the purpose of registration, with a view to enabling every name to be entered...

It is generally admitted that the first mistake in entering names is made by those with difficulties, or, therefore, is not writing to the Registrar...

WAR MEMORIAL. OBT-S.S. Scheme.

To THE EDITOR, "East Africa Standard." Sir—May I ask if you will kindly open the columns of your paper to the publication of the memorial...

QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED. (1) Am I in favour of providing...

(2) What kind of memorial do you and your friends favour? Any suggestion...

(3) Do any of the following appear to you to be the wisest of residents...

(4) Some form of monument in London, Dublin or in any other city...

(5) Some kind of memorial in India, which might be erected in some of the towns...

(6) The endorsement of a home for the disabled...

M. VENIZELOS.

Message to "The Times."

STATEMENT OF AIMS AND POLICY.

We have received from M. Venizelos, leader of the National Greek Government at Athens, the following message...

At the same time, we are leaving for the Continent, in order to take the first steps towards the organization of the new Government...

In fighting this fight with us, we are the only ones who have placed upon the map of Europe the flag of our country...

NATIONAL AIMS

Such is the object of the struggle which we have undertaken...

We wish to make good to us for us the harm that we did to Europe...

We wish to see the Balkan Peninsula as a whole, free and united...

"HONEST WORDS OF PEACE"

Why are we "Misunderstood?"

The Sublime Porte will have to be satisfied with the result of the peace...

After our own long and arduous struggle, we have now to see the result...

It is the intention of the National Government to continue to fight...

On the other hand, it is the intention of the National Government...

It is our intention to continue to fight for the freedom and independence...

It is our intention to continue to fight for the freedom and independence...

THE DUSTPAN

TEN MONTHS IN GERMANY.

London and Berlin Compared.

WOMEN NAVIES

Mr. D. Thomas Curtis, in an article in the Times of November 13, depicts some contrasts between conditions in Germany and in this country during the war.

Among the correspondents I saw were the French public, and the remarks made to me in their clubs and hotels were so complimentary that I will gladly give my impressions for what they were worth.

In England a comparatively few women are doing work of any importance, as we see in the United States that not a single woman has been called upon to do any work since the outbreak of the war.

Harvard

was called to attend to the post of three long weeks prior to the war and I had to go to the front during the early part of a ball. My knowledge of the French public and the ordinary modern American standard of living was not very different during the war. I will endeavour to do my best to show what I have seen the last month in London and what I have seen in Berlin.

There are no restrictions on the Press except in all that is of a military nature. There is no censorship of the press here, but there is a censorship of the press in Germany.

There is no censorship of the press here, but there is a censorship of the press in Germany.

There is no censorship of the press here, but there is a censorship of the press in Germany.

LONDON'S WELL-FILLED SHOPS.

The contrast was striking. Here are shops filled with good things, here are the streets thronged with people, here are shops standing out, here are goods to be had for most. For in Berlin, directly in front of the general reader, the picture is quite different. The streets are empty, the shops are closed, the goods are scarce.

There is no censorship of the press here, but there is a censorship of the press in Germany.

There is no censorship of the press here, but there is a censorship of the press in Germany.

RESIDENT MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

Minor Charges.

At the usual sitting of the Resident Magistrate's Court, held on January 4, 1917, the following cases were tried.

TOTTING AND CAUSING A DISTURBANCE.

The next case to come up for trial was that of a woman named Njiraga, who was charged with having caused a disturbance by being drunk on the outside of a stand near Market Street. She was fined 10/- or 3 weeks' imprisonment for each offence. The fine was paid.

DRINK AND DISOBEDIENCE.

The next case was that of a woman named Njiraga, who was charged with having been drunk and disobedient. She was fined 10/- or 3 weeks' imprisonment for each offence. The fine was paid.

MURKIN FISHermen STOLEN.

Charles Olofin, from the Seychelles, was charged with having stolen a murkin fish from the Seychelles. He was fined 10/- or 3 weeks' imprisonment for each offence. The fine was paid.

ENTERTAINMENT AT KIJARI.

The 'Saucy Settlers'.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

The 'Saucy Settlers' gave an entertainment on Sunday last, which was much appreciated, judging from the applause which greeted the programme. The programme consisted of a variety of songs, dances, and other amusements. The entertainment was very successful, and the audience was very large.

The Economic War. No intelligently considered article has yet appeared in any of our newspapers which takes into account the whole of the economic situation of the world. We have been especially concerned with the fact that, before the war, Germany had built up a colossal empire of raw materials and foodstuffs. This fact which cannot be ignored away. The "Pro Trade" theory which they had used to justify their policy of aggression to a theory. We may say that the economic situation of the world is now such that Germany is preparing for the second time to attack the world. This time she will not only have the resources of the world at her disposal, but she will also have the resources of the world at her disposal. This time she will not only have the resources of the world at her disposal, but she will also have the resources of the world at her disposal.

A POLITICAL VICTORY

BY OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT (EDGAR WALLACE)

There are times I suppose when everyone of us thinks that the war is over, and in vain but glorious dreams of decisive peace which we once enjoyed might be resurrected as the enemy blows which we have been so long waiting for...

But the situation. A man through the Yastor might say. It might be the British will strike in France which we once enjoyed might be resurrected as the enemy blows which we have been so long waiting for...

At this moment with the fall of the Hunstian army decisively turned, and the last consummation of the retirement of that army accomplished, the Balkan position offers us ample food for reflection...

GERMANY AS SHE IS.

"Not Yet Bated."

Latterly at Harrow recently, Mr. P. W. W. Hill, late representative of the "Daily Mail" in Berlin, said Germany is not a beaten nation, but is a thoroughly well equipped nation for the fighting of "any" war longer. They were, according to Hill, still in a position to be successful in any war.

It is not to be wondered at that the British Government should be so anxious to know the truth about Germany.

The British Government should be so anxious to know the truth about Germany.

"WAKE UP, GERMANY!"

Editor's Indictment.

A booklet just published by The Humanitarian, who until September 1914, was the editor of the "British Medical Journal," must surely have given great offence to his country's military leaders...

The author then appeals to his countrymen, "Germans, whom you will surely awake from sleep." When will you ever wake up?...

where France is trampled by war. For a whole generation France who is not subjected to moral degradation...

GERMANY'S FOOD SHORTAGE Government's Sicklist Limit.

At the last meeting of the Berlin City Council, Stadth. Wurm, who also occupies the leading members of the Reichstag, drew attention to the food shortage...

Parsons, he said, were making pigs of gold from their cattle, but the poorer classes were unable to get milk, as the Government had only made for one cow...

required a medical certificate, which was impossible to get, and as the Government had only made for one cow...
