THIS CONCERNS YOU,

Because it Directly Affects Your Pocket.

Why Prices Are High

The World wide scarcity of raw materials.

The worker's demands for higher wages and shorter working hours.

The World's urgent need for commodities following on War restrictions.

The Inflation of Currency.

The Price Outlook.

Within the last month or so there has developed a marked change in the price situation. Cotton, Leather, Metal, etc., in their raw state continue to increase in value the increases are fully sustained, and show a tendency to rise still higher.

To what is this sudden swing upward attributable? Within a recent period even the best judges of market tendencies felt if prices did not advance they would at least remain stationary. Others equally capable of forecasting the future were looking for more or less marked recessions but it is evident that for a considerable period prices will remain high.

Some causes of these high prices are mentioned on the left of this column. But what concerns you is that in spite of high prices Whiteaway, Laidlaw & Co., Ltd., are holding a Sale, of gigantic proportions, and price reductions are more generous than ever before.

WHY PRICES ARE LOW at WHITEAWAY'S SALE.

A Progressive business must turn over its stock frequently.

With the relaxation of import restrictions we are now receiving very heavy accumulated shipments which until our building is extended we have no room to Store.

Our ambition is to give the public always the best possible value.

The exchange is at present favourable to importers.

To Promote the Development of East Africa.

It gives us pleasure to announce that to cope with the rapid developments assumed by the present and various interests in East Africa we have planned a complete reorganization of our Land & Estate Agency Department, which will come into effect as from the 1st proximo. The foundation of this policy we have acquired of the land agency business of Messrs. H. F. Ward & Co. and our organization in East Africa will in future be controlled by Major V. M. Newland (who is shortly returning from Australia) and Major H. F. Ward, assisted by Mr. T. J. O'Brien as General Manager. On his return to England, Mr. G. H. Epton will resume control of our London branch.

SPECIAL arrangements have been made for placing East Africa properties in London, and for investing English funds in different classes of undertakings in this country.

OUR future activities will also embrace surveying, land and livestock auctioneering, valuations and reports, company flotations, share brokering, estate management and ecclesiastical work, and trusteeship.

THE Office of our Branch of our business will be situated in Nairobi House, ground floor.

His Excellency's Replies to the Session's Resolutions

EXPLANATIONS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

At the close of the January Session of the Government in session here at the Convention of Association in Nairobi, the Hon. the Governor, Mr. E.A. Stanford, it will be remembered, presented a two-page paper, containing the officially revised resolutions of the Convention. One of the paragraphs was returned to the committee yesterday, with the explanation that the Government is unable to carry out the resolutions, with the exception of the one relating to the improvement of the roads in the district of the Victoria Falls. The Hon. the Governor has now replied to all the resolutions, and has also made a considerable length. Those to which he did reply will be read later, those which were not replied to will be published in the Standard, but will not be recognized with the E.A. Standard booklet.

MAKING THE PILL

Why Faces in Berlin Assembly

PEOPLE'S UPHEAVAL

BRONNEN REUTER'S AGENCY.) London, June 24. Reuter's message from Berlin states that in the National Assembly, Herr Bauer, reacting to the demand for unconditional signature, said that the demand was being violated and would, to the horror of the nation. He said: "Let us sign, but our hope to our last breath, the attempt to wound our honour, may one day recoil upon authors."

He assumed that the Assembly still did not authorize the signature. There were protests in the light, and a vote was resulting in the confirmation of the signature. The speaker, Fobbech in a brief speech commended the unhappy Fatherland to the Merciful God, and afterwards announced that the party had agreed to the preliminary terms and stating that the nation was in the Army and Navy whom our chiefly allotted the treaty to sign, and an example of self-denial and sacrifice, and to sign the treaty in labour of rebuilding the Fatherland. London, June 27. Reuter's Copenhagen communication from Hansburg that the German troops are occupying city undisturbed where 42 were killed and 116 wounded in the recent fighting.

A message from Berlin states that 5 were killed and 24 wounded in the rioting at Frankfurt-on-Oder. Martial Law has been proclaimed and order has been restored.

Disturbances in northern Berlin have been revived and four have been killed and a number wounded. Bomb exploded outside a building during negotiations between the two Governments. The building was in process of being demolished, but there were no casualties. The Government has refused to accede to the men's demands.

VON LETTOW

Reported to be in a New Role

London, June 21. Reuter's message from Berlin states the "Prubai" says that Von Lettow is organizing an army in East Africa to fight the British Government's demands.

London, June 22. Semi-official message from Berlin states the "Prubai" reports in regard to Lettow Verbeck, who is still in East Africa.

AT THE CONFERENCE

New List of Italian Peace Delegates

London, June 24. Reuter's news from Rome that the new Italian delegation to the Peace Conference, composed of Signor Tittoni, Signor Lancia, and Signor Bissolati, is being formed.

GERMANS SINK THEIR NAVY

Crowning Tragedy of the War in Scapa Flow

ADMIRAL TO BE COURT MARRIALED.

London, June 21. The Admiralty announces that certain interned German ships in Scapa Flow have been sunk and abandoned by their crews, who will be safely detained in custody.

The official report states:—All the interned German battleships and battle-cruisers in Scapa Flow have been sunk, except the battleship "Baden." Five light cruisers were sunk and the remaining three beached, by local troops. Eighteen destroyers were beached, four are afloat, and the rest were sunk.

The German Rear Admiral and most of the Germans from the ships are in custody on board H.M. Ships. Some of the boats from the ships refused to stop when so ordered, and were fired on, a small number of Germans being killed or wounded.

In accordance with the terms of the Armistice the ships were armed with skeleton German crews on board as caretakers without British guards on board.

THE RED FLAG.

London, June 22. A telegram from Thurso last night stated:—The hoisting of the red flag at noon was the signal for the Germans to scuttle their ships. The crews, having carried out the measures which they had prepared, took to their boats and moved towards the shore.

The guardships fired upon them and the Germans jumped overboard. They swam ashore, where they were rounded up.

The battleships "Orion," "Conqueror," and "Thunderer" left Plymouth last night for Rosyth, and special trains from Plymouth conveyed naval detachments for ships at northern ports.

The German fleet was sunk by order of Rear Admiral Von Reuter, a copy of whose instructions has been found. He accepts responsibility and says he read in a German newspaper that the Armistice ended on June 21 and sank the ships in accordance with the original orders early in the war to never surrender.

It appears Von Reuter journeyed to Berlin some weeks ago on a plea of illness but soon returned. According to an eye-witness, each German ship hoisted the ensign to the main mast and most showed the red flag on the foremast.

The spectacle of the array of smoking warships, one occasionally appearing in a cloud of steam and spray was most remarkable.

It was a big task to collect the 5,000 German ammunition or other goods, many of which carried the white flag.

ABROGANT HUNS.

The officers were most arrogant when met on board the British ships and one ordered his hostess to leave.

Another pointing to the ships said: "See how the German army got on with their crews," this was retorted as the British hoisted most of the ships hoisting down the flags.

There were 6 or 10 casualties to the British by firing. The German fleet was at sea at the time but was promptly recalled.

It has been announced the Scapa is not seriously blocked, most of the ships lying 20 fathoms deep, and it was not proposed to mine them. It is authoritatively stated that the conditions of internment for the fleet were laid down by the inter-Allied Council, hence the responsibility for placing German warships aboard rests equally with all the Allies.

Some papers are very angry at talk about Von Reuter being liable to death penalty or imprisonment, and demand that Germany pay the value of the fleet and clear Scapa harbour at their own costs, but general opinion while condemning the stupid cunning and treachery of the armistice, is that ships are a good riddance.

Reuter learns that the authorities are communicating with Paris regarding the action to be taken against Admiral Von Reuter, who, with the German officers and men, is interned.

It is confirmed that the Admiralty learns the scuttling of the fleet was entirely the work of the German Admiralty and was not carried out as a result of instruction from Berlin.

QUESTIONS IN COMMONS.

London, June 23. The House of Commons resumed to-day after the winter recess. Replying to the Hon. G. Lambert (Lab., S. Moulton), Mr. Walter Long said that the Admiralty were waiting for the Commander-in-Chief's report regarding the Scapa Flow occurrences. Von Reuter admitted that he personally ordered the sinking of the warships believing that the armistice ceased at noon-June 21. Von Reuter would have encountered no difficulty in carrying his orders since he was allowed to visit the ships for the purpose of maintaining discipline there. When so doing he was conducted to and from in a British boat. (Laughter.) The following were present; position; ten battleships sunk, and one afloat; five battle-cruisers, and eight light-cruisers; twenty sunk, two afloat and eighteen beached. It was impossible to say whether of the sunken ships were salvageable, or to what extent they would interfere with the sea expert's eyes were needed.

Mr. Walter Long stated that the allies at Paris were now considering the question of reparation for the sinking. The statement that crews were changed periodically was incorrect, but it was never intended. The total guard and maintenance party was reduced from 4,700 to about 1,800. It was impossible for the Admiralty to take possession of the ships were interned and not surrendered. Therefore the Admiralty had no power over the guards thereon. He denied that the naval officers of the Admiralty recommended internment, and complained that the decision of the Allied heads was in favour of internment, which controlled the situation and made

THE PREVENTION OF SCUTTLING UTTERLY IMPOSSIBLE.

EXPERTS' ADVICE.

Mr. Walter Long strongly deprecated certain attacks made upon Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss. At the time the subject was discussed, British naval experts recommended that the fleet be sunk as possible and the remainder not internment (Chicago). Their advice was not adopted, for very good reasons. In Paris the naval experts were in no way responsible for the course then adopted. In replying to further questions, he said that the Government were not able to obtain the confirmation of the report that other ships in German ports had been similarly scuttled. It would unquestionably have been a breach of the armistice terms, if British guards were put aboard. He was unable to say that he had acted otherwise as he had acted in every other matter, in obeying terms of the armistice and adhering to the laws of war and honour. Commandant Bellamy (Co. U., Middlesex) gave notice of further attention to-morrow.

BREACH OF ARMISTICE?

London, June 24. It is understood that Admiral Von Reuter will be tried by naval court-martial for a breach of the Armistice. It is believed that many German warships were scuttled in Scapa Flow, in addition to the capture of the fleet. The German crews are now interned at Invergordon.

The newspapers, commenting upon the German agreement to sign the Peace Treaty, generally point to the indications of a militaristic revival in Germany, as shown by the Scapa Flow incident, as a warning that the Allies must be most vigilant to ensure the carrying out of the conditions. They declare that Germany makes peace with hatred in her heart and that there is no evidence of contrition. It is reported from Thurso that British naval authorities are working continuously to improve the position of the small remainder of the German fleet, and continue pumping up going on in the beached ships. Two or three cruisers and three destroyers have been already refloated. It is understood that the new cruiser "Emden" is afloat above water.

THE LOSSES.

The Admiralty have received a telegram from the Admiral in command of Scapa Flow, stating that the "Baden" is moored ready to be beached if necessary and has steam up. Leaks are being kept down and the main engines are apparently undamaged.

The "Emden," "Frankfurt," and "Nürnberg" and 18 destroyers were beached. The "Emden" has sustained but little damage, but the leaks cannot be located. The upper deck of the "Frankfurt" is awash at high water. The "Nürnberg" is beached on, with a considerable list, and apparently has little damage. Two destroyers are afloat. If two days more salt-water pumps arrive before bad weather sets in again there is every prospect of securing the salvage in the condition of the "Baden" and "Emden," and probably also the "Frankfurt" and "Nürnberg." With small salvage craft several destroyers could be saved. There is a prospect of saving the others with elaborate operations being arranged. All possible effort is being taken to secure the ships to prevent further damage.

Reuter's correspondent at Paris says that the Council of Three referred to the sinking of the German

PEACE MEASURES

Treaty Not Operative for a Month

TRIPLE ALLIANCE

(REUTERS' AGENCY.)

London, June 24. Reuter learns that the Peace Treaty will not be operative for about a month as it must be ratified by the Parliaments in the respective countries. The proposed war measures, including the blockade, will continue during the interval.

Reuter's Paris correspondent reports that President Wilson has indicated his readiness to sign a treaty covering the arrangements whereby Anglo-American troops will go to the assistance of France in the event of a German menace. If the treaty is not ready for signature before his departure he will authorize Mr. Lansing to sign on his behalf.

London, June 25. Reuter's correspondent at Paris says that the German delegates have arrived at St. Germain, and have returned to their respective countries.

Reuter's correspondent at Copenhagen learns from Berlin, that by order of the King, German troops have left London. The former U.S. Ministry announced that the United States Government arranged a solemn memorial service to be held in Washington on the 21st of July in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. General Gough was present. 20,000 people participated in a procession being headed by the King and American Ministers.

FOOT'S ORDER TO MURDER

London, June 25. In the House of Commons, speaking to Commander Keesworthy, Mr. Cecil Harcourt (Under Foreign Secretary) said that the Generalissimo Foot had ordered the Germans to cease all further advance northwards towards Edinburgh, and to complete evacuation of Windau and Libau, also the complete evacuation, as soon as possible, and in accordance with Article 12 of the armistice, of all territory comprising part of Rania before the war.

CANADIAN RIOTS.

London, June 25. The city of Winnipeg, Canada, placed under martial law on Saturday, June 21, when the Riot Act was read and one person had been killed and two injured with revolver shots during a charge of the Royal N.W. Mounted Police.

INTERNED PAINTER.

London, June 25. The Judicial Committee found nothing to justify the revocation of the naturalization certificate of the famous portrait painter, Lord Leighton, whose temporary internment during the war created such a sensation. Earl Selborne and Mr. Austen Chamberlain gave evidence in favour of Leighton.

A commission of experts is to determine whether the armistice conditions have been violated. Apparently the main question of the conference is that it is a distinct violation of the Treaty, the attack on the treaty stipulated return to France.

Probably the Commission appointed will consider action against the Germans in Paris that the Germans have sunk the remainder of the warships lying in German harbours.

OUR CHALLENGE, - Best Value Obtainable.

Why Prices Are High

The World wide scarcity of raw materials.

The worker's demands for higher wages and shorter working hours.

The World's urgent need for commodities following on War variations.

The Inflation of Currency.

The Price Outlook.

Within the last month or so there has developed a marked change in the price situation. Cotton, Leather, Metal, etc., in their raw state continue to increase in value the increases are fully sustained, and show a tendency to rise still higher.

To what is this sudden swing upward attributable? Within a recent period even the best judges of market tendencies felt that if prices did not advance they would as a result of the increase in fully sustained, and show a tendency to rise still higher.

Some causes of these high prices are mentioned on the left of this column. But what concerns you is that in spite of high prices Whiteaway, Laidlaw & Co., Ltd., are holding a sale, of gigantic proportions, and price reductions are more generous than ever before.

WHY PRICES ARE LOW at WHITEAWAY'S SALE.

A Progressive business must turn over its stock frequently.

With the relaxation of import restrictions we are now receiving very heavy accumulated shipments which until our building is extended we have no room to store.

Our ambition is to give the public always the best possible value.

The exchange is at present favourable to importers.

To Promote the Development of East Africa.

It gives me pleasure to announce that to cope with the rapid developments assured by the present universal interest in East Africa we have planned a complete reorganisation of our Land & Estate Agency Department, which will come into effect as from the 1st instant.

The furtherance of this policy we have acquired the land agency business of Messrs. H. F. Ward & Co., and our Land organisation in East Africa will in future be controlled by Major V. M. Newland (who is shortly returning from Australia) and Major H. F. Ward, assisted by Mr. T. J. O'neal as General Manager. On his return to England, Mr. C. H. Tritton will resume control of our London branch.

SPECIAL arrangements have been made for placing East African properties in London, and for investing English funds in different classes of undertakings in this country.

Our future activities will also embrace surveying, land and livestock auctioneering, valuations and estates, company formations, share broking, real estate management and ancillary work, and trusteeship.

THE Offices of this Branch of our business are now situated in Nairobi House, ground floor.

HUGH VAUGHAN'S
The occasion of Oxford University conferring an honorary degree of Civil Law upon Admiral Bessy, Sir John Jellicoe and Sir Alfred Bower is an interesting opportunity. As the admiral and the two other officers were present at the ceremony and there was a most distinguished gathering, including Field Marshal Sir Horatio Kitchener, Sir Henry Wilson, Admiral Beatty, Sir J. Jellicoe, Admiral Bower, Sir J. Monson, and Sir Alfred Bower.

Subsequently the freedom of the city was conferred upon Admiral Bessy, who said "the Steps Flow drifting, although a fleet, cannot fall to provide a series of humiliations in the minds of those who only strive to acquire the rights of freemen."

He concluded "All thinking people will realize that no part of the blame can justly be attributed to those on whose behalf I receive this great honour."

THE PEOPLE'S "COMBINE"
 We beg to tender thanks to an appreciative, patriotic and progressive body of Farmer-Settlers, for their ready invitation to co-operation. That such co-operation has been comparatively short in duration, and that the results are so satisfactory results go without saying. We have no grounds for looking forward to a strong position in the future that will, by continued mutual co-operation, be able to be concerned in the operations of the "Combine".
 Co-operation, or "Members" as we are pleased to designate them, may rest assured that we shall at all times be to the principle involved in the inception of the People's "Combine". We have no intention of withdrawing from the venture and we have no doubt but that its objective is to be realized and that its sphere of usefulness will gradually expand.
 Membership we find it necessary to explain, does not involve investment of money in the purchase of shares, as in the case of a company. We sell as shares yet are not, Members share dividends of the profits.
 Messes. Clubs, Hotels, etc., are equally eligible as "Members".
 Write or call for a copy of Prospectus.
 Do not fail to watch the "Daily" for further announcements and business developments.

Promote the Development of East Africa.

It gives us pleasure to announce that to cope with the rapid developments assured by the present universal interest in East Africa we have planned a complete reorganization of our Land & Estate Agency Department, which will come into effect as from the 1st instant. In furtherance of this policy we have acquired the land agency business of Messrs. H. W. Ward & Co., and our Land organization in East Africa will in future be controlled by Major V. M. Newland (who is shortly returning from Australia) and Major H. F. Ward, assisted by Mr. T. J. O'Connell as General Manager. On his return to England, Mr. H. F. Tritton will resume control of our London branch.
 SPECIAL arrangements have been made for placing East African properties in different classes of undertakings in this country.
 OUR future activities will also embrace surveying, land and livestock auctioneering, valuations and reports, company formations, share brokering, estate management and ecclesiastical work, and trusteeship.
 THE Offices of this Branch of our business are now situate in Nairobi House, ground floor.

ALIEN SOLDIERS Appeal for a Chance on The Land is B.E.A. THE BARRON, E. A. STANTON. Sir—May we use the columns of your paper to appeal to all the Soldiers whose applications for Free Grants of land were refused on account of alien birth, to communicate with me so that we may make a collective effort to have this question reviewed and a memorial presented to H.E. the Governor on national status being proved for us or against.

Further to the treatment meted out to us against all the lines of false-alienhood and the sporting instincts of the British race, for in the trenches where death and disability went hand in hand took the same chance. Now when war is over and once again the sporting element is brought out in the shape of a "Landed Gentry" with power for the brave, the same men are in the field, yet where there are now, no chance of death to face, but we are fully a fair measure of discount for a man the place had is barred from the start.

HOMEWARD DRAFTS Demobilisations of Troops from East Africa

In the House of Commons recently, Captain Hacking asked the Secretary of State for War whether he was aware that a draft from East Africa arrived by the "Field Marshal" on February 24 and a further draft arrived by the "Cavendish Castle" on March 5; that both these drafts proceeded to Bedford and were still stationed there, with no apparent prospect of demobilisation, and that any further drafts arrived on 4th, 5th and 6th March and March 19, the "Durham Castle" and "Mars" and were distributed to dispersal centres, from which the men had been demobilised irrespective of length of service or age; whether the men of the two earlier drafts had more service than those older than the men in the later drafts; and, if so, whether he would endeavour to secure uniformity of treatment between the men concerned?

Mr. Churchill: Inquiries will be made, and I will inform my hon. and gallant friend of the results as early as possible.

On this question I asked Capt. Hacking, M.P., for further information and have since received the following letters:

Dear Sir,—With further reference to yours of the 22nd April, with reference to the draft from East Africa, I now enclose copy of the reply which I have received from Mr. Churchill's Parliamentary Secretary.

Yours faithfully, D. H. HACKETT, House of Commons.

Dear Hacking,—With reference to your question in the House of Commons on the 14th April, regarding the demobilisation of various drafts of troops arriving in England from East Africa, Mr. Churchill is informed as the result of his enquiries that the drafts on all the ships mentioned in your question were treated in the same way, i.e. the men who were eligible for demobilisation were demobilised, and those who were not eligible were sent to their respective depots. In the case of the men on the "Field Marshal" and "Cavendish Castle" the demobilisation papers were sent accordingly and direct to the dispersal station for demobilisation.

Yours faithfully, (Sgd.) A. McCallum Scott.

CORRECTED WEIGHTS

Dear Sir,—Owing to a clerical error, the weights for "Nights" are published by the Jerrin-Laffite Co. as follows:— 1st. 11lb. 2nd. 12lb. 3rd. 13lb. 4th. 14lb. 5th. 15lb. 6th. 16lb. 7th. 17lb. 8th. 18lb. 9th. 19lb. 10th. 20lb. Yours, etc., A. Vignier, Secretary, E. A. Post Club.

On the Bill to amend the Master and Servants Ordinance coming up for 2nd reading at the Legislative Council on Monday, Mr. Constance rose and suggested that the Bill be postponed until next week, the reason being not that he was opposed to it, but he considered the time not opportune to increase the obligations of employers to-day.

He felt that every clause proposed a safeguard or benefit to the servant, and that there was no safeguard whatever for the master. Though an ignorant servant must have his interests safeguarded, it must also be made to recognise his part of the contract with the master, which he always failed to do.

At the present time the expense of recruiting labour amounted to something like £1 per head, and by the time the boys reached the plantation about 25 per cent had disappeared, there being no means of making up to the employer the expenses he had incurred.

Mr. Morrison seconded Mr. Coverdale's motion, as he said he thought that until the whole question of native labour was dealt with, this should not be considered. What Native Commissioner should have used the larger scheme of native registration. This opinion Mr. Rodwell also supported.

ONE-SIDED AFFAIR.

Mr. McLeellan Wilson said that in considering this Bill he did not think the amendment for postponement should be put up, and he felt it necessary for some such Bill to be brought in, though he was glad to see the Bill in putting it into force before the native registration was brought in.

This bill seemed to be, he said, one-sided affair, he thought that the masters should do their duty, not the natives. Some are so far gone as to let the boys work 2 or 3 hours a day and call it the boy's work. If they were going to have Labour Inspectors let them watch the interests of both sides.

When he read the Bill, he said he felt it was upset, for he had considered it an imposition on employers. He was also afraid against any medical officer leaving powers as given in this Bill. Medical officers were very cranky, and suggested what they might want to do with the boys which they should build up for the natives.

Mr. Phelps sympathised with the Native Commissioner, and felt that with the granting of land to ex-soldiers the Government had undertaken grave responsibilities towards them and it was essential that steps should be taken that the labour supply should be adequate to their needs.

WELFARE POINT.

The Governor pointed out that the Bill was to amend the law, with native registration and work side by side with native control, which they also bill in hand.

Mr. McDevor Ross suggested the bill for native labour. He said he knew of those natives had so called members, that they did not want to work again for the rest of their lives, and therefore he wanted a Bill that would not be detrimental upon natives, and yet protect the masters.

In replying to all these criticisms, Mr. Amey said that he would like to remind members that there were masters who could not be trusted, and they were not dealing with the question of European employment. Labour questions in this country should be the whole of the employer community in E.A.A. and not only.

If they work on much longer in this irresponsible manner, they would soon be no natives to work. He had found, where labour had been obtained by so-called labour recruiters and sent down to various parts in an irresponsible manner, that the natives had been found in a starving condition.

MEDICAL INSPECTION.

That was because they had no power of medical inspection. What they wanted was a rural method of examination of the human material before it came into the labour field, and not leave it to chance if or not it was fit for labour. What he wanted done was to medically inspect labour before it was distributed to areas of Appointment.

He could not conceive such a bill as harmful to employers, it only safeguarded the employer and safeguarded the future labour supply, as it gave them sufficient control from the medical point of view to prevent natives going out as labourers who were not fit.

At present they had large numbers of natives distributed over the Protectorate only in many instances to die, go into hospital, or to be re-registered without one day's labour, and this was very uneconomical.

What everyone wanted was sound labour, and he proposed in the Bill to safeguard the employers, by the medical officers saying which natives were fit and which are not, to go out to labour.

Another point of view was that many cases did require constant medical supervision and unless this was given the labour supply would gradually decrease, and it was for this purpose that he asked.

TRUST OR SUFFER.

It had been considered desirable in the interests of the employers and labour to see that recruits were properly performed. If they came to dealing with the matter from the point of view of inspection, they were not to use both common sense and tact, and he realized the difficulty of the service inferior between the employer and the servant.

If they could not inspect, once the injury was going to be done to the natives in this country, and if the native was left to all the vacancies of the various employers, he would presently not want to work at all. "Either," said Mr. Newborth, "you must trust the Native Labour Department, or do it yourselves and suffer for your incompetence."

The employer would not benefit until he got a contented labourer. Until that was realized one could give over expediting the native to work at all.

The registration of natives would come as soon as the staff was able to cope with the work, and the Bill was before the members to try and help with some of the difficulties in front of them.

In the last 2 or 3 months, where the inspection had been employed, it had confirmed the fact that that trade in the Colony. We are dealers in all classes of East African soil through our hands, and it has been most unsatisfactory to find parcels after parcel in which there is packed among good quality, a few badly prepared, gummy, immature seeds, some heads only 2 or 3 of four, and with raggy ends, and even the loss of coarse-damage pecked in.

*CARE NEEDED

The Chief Secretary said it was impossible to put the native registration into effect straight away, because there were only 71 officials to fill 118 posts.

His Excellency expressed surprise at the attitude taken by the unofficial members of the Bill to his proposal of labour. During the 2 years he had conducted the census in Rhodesia and Nyassaland, he had dealings with thousands of labourers and found medical inspection necessary, and the greatest care in housing and feeding. The result of a contented labourer would be to go back to his home contented, and bring further labour. If they produce natives to rush forward to the anything they could get hold of, it was a shortsighted policy, as the shipment of inferior goods, much of which has been done to the detriment of the natives.

The medical inspection should take place in the reserves before the men go to labour and not the whole expense of medical examination be imposed upon the employer, who employs those men or not. In the influenza epidemic, more than one half of the deaths occurred in the reserves, and comparatively few on the plantations. He considered that their contact with European employers and that they were far better looked after than was the case 5 years ago. The amendment that the Bill proposed until next session was not voted upon and lost. The Council accordingly went into committee and proceeded to discuss its clauses.

B. E. A. FLAX.

The Editor E.A. Standard. Sir,—Knowing that your paper has a wide circulation throughout British East Africa, we think it will be useful to bring before the notice of those who are engaged in the sisal industry, some points connected therewith, which will have the greatest influence on the future of that trade in the Colony.

We are dealers in all classes of East African soil through our hands, and it has been most unsatisfactory to find parcels after parcel in which there is packed among good quality, a few badly prepared, gummy, immature seeds, some heads only 2 or 3 of four, and with raggy ends, and even the loss of coarse-damage pecked in.

PROTEST IN LONDON

To The Editor, E.A. STANDARD.
 Sir.—I shall be obliged if you will give publicity in your columns to a letter recently addressed on behalf of this Society to the Secretary of State for the Colonies regard to certain questions in the British East Africa Protectorate, copy of which is enclosed.

Yours, etc.,
TRAVES BURTON,
 Secretary.

 protection society 296 Vauxhall
 Bridge Road,
 London, May 23.

(ENCLOSURE.)

To,
 The Rt Hon. Viscount Milner,
 G.C.B., G.C.M.G., Colonial
 Office, S.W.1.

Sir.—Our Committee has been watching with concern the situation in British East Africa with reference to native land and labour, more particularly the proposal to reduce the Kikuyu native reserves, and we beg leave again to emphasise the general principle which should in our opinion be applied to all native reserve lands, namely:—

That once native reserves have been allotted to indigenous tribes the title to them should be a secure one, and that portions of reserve land should only be alienable from the natives for indigenous public works, and then only upon the same conditions as those applying to the alienation of lands occupied by White Settlers.

In view of the local agitation, we beg to ask that the Society may be allowed to express through you its warm appreciation to the Governor Sir Edward Northey for his attitude upon this question as expressed in the following words:—"Take the Kikuyu reserves, you cannot in justice, as far as I can see, straight away take a ten mile strip along the Railway and give it to soldier settlers.... We welcome this declaration because it appears to recognise the barefaced proposals which have been made for the expropriation of thousands of Kikuyu natives from their tribal lands, contrary to Government pledges, for the purpose of providing areas for soldier settlement."

At the same time we beg to urge that in any local enquiry which may be made as to the adequacy and suitability of the reserve, the membership of any Commission appointed for the purpose should include those who have made special study of, or held responsible positions for, native affairs.

We desire to emphasize this latter point in view of the amazing two hour speech made by Major Grogan on behalf of the settlers in February last, in welcoming Sir Edward Northey upon his arrival in the Protectorate. The fact that this offensive speech, delivered in terms of a hostile ultimatum, has been received with so large a measure of local approval has greatly deepened the concern of our Society for the welfare of the African subjects of the King, and also on behalf of the Indian immigrants in the East African Protectorate.

We are, Sir,
 Your obedient servants,
 (Sd.) TRAVES BURTON,
 Secretary.
