Why not buy now, when the price is low, and make forward contracts to meet your requirements for the next six or twelve months?
By so doing you will not only be insured against fluctuations in the grain market, but you will also be enabled accurately to estimate one of your main items of working costs, which you cannot possibly otherwise do. The advantage of this method over that of buying from hand to mouth should be obvious.

Ruiru Farmers

CHAIRMAN'S REVIEW OF A GOOD YEAR'S WORK.

The Annual General Meeting of the Ruiru Farmers' Association was held at Ruiru on December 10.

After the minutes of the previous meeting had been confirmed the President, Mr. H. B. Joyce, delivered the Annual Report.

The following were elected office-bearers and directors for 1922.

President: Mr. H. B. Joyce. Vice-President: Mr. H. F. Harrow. Secretary and Treasurer: Capt. W. H. Bidie.

Executive Committee: Messrs. Archer, Irwin, Ebdell, Fyfe, Bursell, Malbone-Smith, and A. J. Harris.

Delegates to Convention: Messrs. Joyce, Harrow and Archer.

Members of Board of Directors: Messrs. Archer, Harrow and Bidie.

A letter was read from the Convention and the Chairman thanked the members for their support.

The resolutions passed at the Nairobi Main Meeting were unanimously adopted.

Mr. H. B. Joyce was asked to attend the Convention with the Executive Group which will meet in this country.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT. The President's Annual Report read— "I have once more to make the annual report of our work."

The preceding year was one of tremendous happenings for the Ruiru and its surroundings.

Some of the incidents which we have had to deal with in the past year are: the influenza epidemic, the drought, the fire, the locust plague, and the various movements of the Government.

It is not easy to leave this subject without some criticism of our work. I feel that we have not done enough to help the Government in its efforts to improve the country.

It is my hope that the members of the Ruiru Farmers' Association will be able to do more for the country in the future.

by an outstanding feature of it has been the new spirit of co-operation which has shown itself among us.

The movement which we have made in the past year is a most commendable one.

Income Tax

THE QUESTION OF LEGALITY DISMISSED.

In the Legislative Council on Tuesday, Mr. Poyta Cobb moved...

In speaking to the motion Mr. Poyta Cobb said he would like to make it clear from the outset that the motion was to avoid passing expenditure...

Mr. Poyta Cobb continuing said there was precedent for his suggestion in the British Isles in certain cases past the legality of certain provisions had been doubted on certain and the authority concerned had considered it wise to suspend the tax until the matter was decided.

The Attorney General did not express an opinion on the matter and therefore the question is left to the discretion of the Government. Law Officers of the Colony have taken the speaker's point and made mistakes on very important sections.

At the present moment the speaker is in receipt of the 1921 revenue from income tax and he is not aware of any arrears in the revenue had been assessed with anticipation for its collection, while very few of the cases could be heard until well into 1922.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Hon. Attorney General said that this tax which was first imposed by the Council two years ago had been frequently considered and it was now suggested that it should not be collected until a competent court of law decided as to whether such tax was constitutional.

He complains that no opinion has been given by the law officers of the Crown. It was pointed out by a member in answer to a question by the Right Hon. the Attorney General that the law is legal, or at least that it should be treated as such.

It seems to me an over-estimation to pretend to say a tax is imposed in legal. I should really like to know what the legality of the tax was questioned.

It was said that the income tax was a direct answer to the question of the legality of the tax and that it was imposed in legal.

The Colonial Secretary said he had no objection to supporting the motion. The matter appeared to him quite clear. It was suggested that they should put Government in the absurd position of passing a law one day and then next day announcing that law became Government.

Mr. Collins Wells thought that the collection of income tax would be suspended to pay, while others would receive. Everyone who would would prefer it with the Government.

CAPT. COBBY: Capt. Cooby said: "I am extremely sorry to find myself in the position with other members on this side of the Council. I have taken the trouble to look up past debates on this matter and before I come to the Council, and I cannot find the resolution of the debate. The majority of members were in favour of the imposition of the income tax."

THE MAKING OF A FIELD MARSHAL

PROFESSOR GREGORY VALLEY

We propose to devote a definite section of our Weekly Edition to literature, and trust, by bringing to the notice of our readers the latest books, that we shall not only stimulate interest, but also secure a more general interest in the subject of books.

W FIELD MARSHALS ARE MADE

HEALTH, WORK, AND ABILITY.

From Private to Field-Marshal, by Field-Marshal Sir William Robertson, Bart.

It is said that the world is tired of the war, though the war is not over. It is true that the war has given little occasion for the necessity of the war, but the war has not given little occasion for the necessity of the war.

After reading one of the Staff College papers, I was struck by the fact that the war has given little occasion for the necessity of the war.

The Government wants to see the military adviser as 'old' as the hills. It is a pity that the military adviser is not as 'old' as the hills.

The following extract illustrates something of the personal side of the profession. It is a pity that the military adviser is not as 'old' as the hills.
