AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

Annual General Report

Below is the Annual Report of the Agricultural and Horticultural Societies of Kenya presented at the Annual General Meeting held in Nairobi on Monday.

I have pleasure in submitting the Annual Report for the year ending December 31st, together with the Audited Balance Sheet and Statement of Accounts as at that date.

1. ANNUAL SHOW, NAIROBI. The Society's annual show was held at Nairobi, commencing on the 24th December 1921 and continuing until the 29th. The show was held at the Nairobi Club and was a most successful one. It was the first time that the show had been held at Nairobi since 1914. The show was held in the grounds of the Nairobi Club and was a most successful one. It was the first time that the show had been held at Nairobi since 1914.

Table with columns for various items and their values, likely representing the show's accounts.

The general account presented to the 1922 Show both by Exhibitors and public sales was particularly gratifying, having to view the adverse conditions and depression prevailing in the country.

The principal feature of the Show was the District Exhibition which is unique for the country and is the only one of its kind in the East African continent. It was the first time that the show had been held at Nairobi since 1914.

All other sections of the Show were also very successful and were well attended. The show was held in the grounds of the Nairobi Club and was a most successful one. It was the first time that the show had been held at Nairobi since 1914.

Let your suggestions be sent to the Government for an issue of land occupied under the Government and land to be transferred to the private ownership of the State. The Government of Kenya has been very successful in its efforts to improve the country.
