EAST AFRICAN SHIPPING

CONFERENCE LINES AND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

LONDON PROPOSALS.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT
London, Saturday
The report of the Shipping Committee of the East African section of the London Chamber of Commerce composed of Messrs. Pictet, Hooper, and Hasler has circulated widely. The report contains proposals already announced and expresses the hope that it will be possible to include further ports, such as Belfast and Glasgow among those enjoying through bills of lading.

It is also hoped that some modification will be possible in certain cases in rates.

It is announced that the Conference Lines are willing to contract with local producers for the most of the 1932 output at 45/- per ton, no extra freight being payable for Antwerp or Hamburg, where shippers are prepared similarly to contract for coffee, cotton, fax, hides, etc., if desired, at rates to be agreed.

The Conference Lines are unable to recover the outward freight owing to the restricted traffic. The Committee differed regarding the advantages and disadvantages of the rebate system and urge formation of a Merchants' and Shippers' Committee under the Chamber of Commerce since such would be welcomed by the Shipping Companies.

SOUTH AFRICAN REVOLT

REBELS LOSE HEAVILY IN FIGHT WITH TROOPS.

AEROPLANE CRASHES.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
Capetown, Monday.
37 Bondswaves were killed and a hundred, wounded in an engagement with Proteostrate forces at Haibmond, north of the Orange River. Four members of the Proteostrate force were wounded.

The rebels still hold water holes in the Haibmond Mountains. It is now believed that Morris does not intend to enter Richtersveld, but will try to get westward in order to link up with another rebel band.
A Union aeroplane which was co-operating with the Proteostrate forces crashed.
Police reinforcements from the Union have arrived by sea at Port Nolloth.

Upset on Tuesday.

Analysts of industrial news are agreed to be tending to continue the rebellion in South West Africa, but what has happened to some of those who have been taken prisoner is unlikely to encourage any large desertions.
Some rather disgusting rumours concerning the treatment of rebel prisoners are in circulation.
An attempt will probably be made to get in touch with Morris by a trustworthy emissary; it is understood that the Union Government is much perturbed at recent developments and is far from satisfied that the host has been done to remove natural causes of unrest among the Hottentots.

Welsh Memorial

THE PREMIER AND A TRIBUTE TO BRITISH TROOPS.

London, June 3.
In laying the foundation stone of Orisworth War Memorial, Hall, Sir Lloyd George paid a fitting tribute to the British who had fallen and who would have died vainly if the nations had not acknowledged that right was supreme.

A letter written by Mr. Lloyd George and deposited beneath the stone says that these brave men died in order that the dominion of right and peace might be more firmly established in the government of men.

ENGINEERING DISPUTE

PROSPECTS OF A COMPLETE SETTLEMENT.

MANY UNIONS SURRENDER.

(THROUGH BRETHER'S AGENCY.)
London, June 2.
A ballot of 47 English and 12 Irish Unions excluding the Amalgamated Engineering Union resulted in a majority of over 50,000 in favour of acceptance of the employers' terms which make an alteration in the working conditions subject to a fortnight's notice.

A National Conference of the Amalgamated Engineering Union overwhelmingly decided to submit the employer's proposals to a ballot of the members.
The Engineering Unions tonight concluded an agreement with the employers to resume work next week and there is a prospect that a ballot will be in favour of acceptance of the terms.

It is the opinion of Trade Union circles that complete peace will be restored in the industry within a fortnight.

THE FASCISTI AGAIN

SERIOUS AGRARIAN TROUBLE IN ITALY AVERTED.

THE GOVERNMENT AND FREE LABOUR.

(THROUGH BRETHER'S AGENCY.)
Rome, June 1.
A section of the European Press has been making capital of the conflict which has been taking place here these last few days between the Socialists and Agrarian organisations in some of the provinces around Bologna.

To understand the present position it is necessary to know the cause leading up to it.
After the war the Socialists organisations succeeded in establishing in that part of Italy a strict control over the agrarian movement and salaries, regulating even the smallest details on the running of the markets.
This produced an ever-increasing dissatisfaction among the middle-class and landowners who by maintaining their position in the Socialists at least partially restored the free competition of labour.

The continued friction between these two organisations created an agrarian crisis which has now reached its acute stage. When the harvest was approaching the Middle Class Agrarian endeavoured to attract labour from the neighbouring localities and this was energetically opposed by the Socialists.

The Prefect of Bologna, who was between the two contending parties the Monoplists and the Landowners, tried his utmost to prohibit the migration of unemployed labour from place to place.

Against this decision the Liberal Organisation and the Fascist Party and this was the cause of the same up of those last few days.

The Director General of Police is now in Bologna to try to compromise between the two parties. The situation is most difficult as Bologna has the support of a large number of "Fascist" agrarians who are likely to be responsible for possible attacks.

The lack of this authority is most delicate as it is necessary not only to repress the movement but to compromise between the two parties without incurring the ire of this year's product.

Without this authority the position would be decidedly more acute as certain parties are attempting to make it and it is the general impression that the events of the last two days, having brought forward no new complications, will now pacified and will remain so until the next outbreak of the country being absolutely calm.

Rome, June 4.

Following the energetic action of the Government the situation at Bologna has remained its normal position.
The Head of the Fascist has called on all members to suspend all further action. Detachments of the Italian Carabinieri have isolated the Fascist forcing them to disperse quietly.

Fourparties between the two factions who are the cause of the friction are proceeding.

The Italian Press are praising the action of the Government in thus averting a serious outbreak which so rapidly restoring order.

Let us return again to education generally. Every day brings home to me the fact that the education of the young is being neglected. It is not only the parents who are to blame, but the Government, the school authorities, and the public.
