THE INTERESTING SUBJECT OF HEAT

A QUERER STATEMENT THAT IS NEVERTHELESS A FACT

In this article of the series, "Heat" is again the subject and attempt is made to explain what happens inside a boiler when steam is being generated.

We finished our last article by saying that we would have a further talk on the interesting subject of heat, or perhaps, if we start first of our readers, if we start by making the queer statement that it is just as easy to apply to certain substances large amounts of heat and yet not make them hotter. Yet, notwithstanding this it is a fact that water is evaporated.

When water is heated to a round 100 degrees of Fahrenheit, steam is generated, the pressure of this steam will raise the water level in the vessel, inasmuch as, also, it will raise the water level in the boiler, so that the water level in the boiler is higher than the water level in the vessel.

When the water in the boiler is heated to a round 100 degrees of Fahrenheit, steam is generated, the pressure of this steam will raise the water level in the vessel, inasmuch as, also, it will raise the water level in the boiler, so that the water level in the boiler is higher than the water level in the vessel.

What science has done for you,

The change from the primitive rush dip to electric light is hardly more striking than the change from old methods of packing tea to the Brooke Bond vacuum tin.

Science has at last devised the perfect method of packing tea for tropical climates. The Brooke Bond vacuum tin is proof against the attacks of heat, damp and insects. It brings your tea in perfect condition always - crisp, and fresh, and pure as the day it left the tea gardens. Insist on having it.

Ask for Brooke Bond Tea in the vacuum-packed tin. It costs no more than ordinary tea.

several and the official number the unofficial number. We have no wish to show distinction, but we are under the impression that Kenya should be included in the former category rather than in the latter. The steps are, first, a Proclamation with a grant-in-aid, next a certain amount of elective representation in Kenya—initially an unofficial but a "sixty per cent" committee. Our Finance and a Kenyan Committee, composed largely of unofficial members, should show a very marked capacity for efficient and active work. My claim therefore is that the steps are fair and that the work for the country could be done were our representation in the Legislative Council placed on a wider basis, ought not, in our opinion, to be overlooked. Such a proposal would be entirely within the province of the sort of initiative which are admissible to the Kenya settlers.

INDIAN QUESTIONS.

The following is an extract from the Southwest of India December 31, 1931: "We have been continuing to peruse the Kinva Chronicle of Bombay, that the Indian Congress Committee for Nairobi are again making an attempt to induce the Legislature to pass a Bill for the purpose of giving the Government of the Province of the Western Provinces a right to appoint a member of the Legislative Council from the Province of the Western Provinces. The Bill is a measure which would be entirely within the province of the sort of initiative which are admissible to the Kenya settlers."

U.S. Royal Cord the Individual Tyre.

Perfect in grace of design, in balance, in beauty of appearance—the individuality of U.S. Royal Cord is apparent on sight.

And if you could see a U.S. Royal Cord in its section, you would see some individuality in its construction of the tyre—refinements of manufacture that make the performance of Royal Cord individual, too.

Strength and mileage is built up with layers of strong cords, each cord insulated from the other by a cushion of live rubber, and each successive ply is laid at right angles to those above and below—insulated in the same way. Thus natural friction is eliminated and an outstanding resistance to internal wear built into the tyre.

Built into the tyre. That is the point. Thus why Royal Cords look good and are good—giving greater mileage, more riding ease and perfect freedom from tyre worries.

To Our Country Customers.

Annual Stocktaking Sale.

We have pleasure in advising you that our ANNUAL STOCKTAKING SALE commences on Monday, January 23rd, and according to precedent the prices of all goods will be substantially reduced in every department.

To enable us to give our Customers the maximum benefit of reduced prices by economy, we have not issued an expensive Sale Catalogue, but ask you to select your requirements from the Catalogue posted in November which is still representative of our enormous stock.

All orders received during the Sale period will be executed at Sale Prices amounting to a clear saving of 20 per cent. to 25 per cent. of usual prices, according to the sizes of goods. Existing Remnants will in every case receive the same benefits as those who are able to visit our Store and all orders will be attended to with scrupulous care.

The termination of our financial year is close at hand, and as it is undesirable for any outstanding debts to appear on our books, we respectfully call you to send cash with all orders. Our policy of satisfaction or money back guarantees you against any loss.

Trusting to receive your valued orders by return and covering you of your best attention.

Yours faithfully,

U.S. Royal Cord. The Individual Tyre. PERFECT in grace of design, its balance, in beauty of appearance—the individuality of U.S. Royal Cords is apparent on sight.

And if you could cut a U.S. Royal Cord into sections, you would see the same individuality in the construction of the tyre—refinements of manufacture that make the performance of Royal Cords individual, too.

Strength and mileage is built up with layers of sticky cords, each cord insulated from the other by a cushion of live rubber, and each successive layer—laid at right angles to those above and below—insulated in the same way.

Build into this. That is the point. That is why Royal Cords look good and are good—giving greater mileage, more riding ease and perfect freedom from wobble.

IT IS U.S. ROYAL CORDS — the Individual Tyre.
