NOTES BY THE TOWN CLERK.

Mr. J. A. Watson furnished Nairobi Municipal Council yesterday with some interesting notes on the motto of the Corporation.

Mr. Watson suggested that the motto should be "Unity is Strength."

It would not be surprising if the motto should be "Unity is Strength."

Some ideas.

EXTRACTS FROM HABARI

Maize Meas on Native Customs.

WIFE PURCHASE A BAD IDEA

A recent number of Habari contains some interesting statistics on maize customs as viewed by natives. A few extracts are appended: The idea of purchasing a wife as a girl is still in vogue in some parts of the country. It is a custom which is dying out, but it is still in vogue in some parts of the country. It is a custom which is dying out, but it is still in vogue in some parts of the country.

The reason for regarding this custom as a bad one is that it is a custom which is dying out, but it is still in vogue in some parts of the country. It is a custom which is dying out, but it is still in vogue in some parts of the country.

Young Men in Towns. If all the elders in every tribe consulted together on this point of reducing the Maize and if they all agreed to do it it is hoped that many young men will make an effort to get married and improve the condition of their tribe. It is a custom which is dying out, but it is still in vogue in some parts of the country.

New Customs Needed. There are many ways of showing the usefulness of the custom of giving cattle or goats as Maize. It is a custom which is dying out, but it is still in vogue in some parts of the country.

Money Better Than Cows? Now, don't you all think that it is better to have a cow than to have a Maize? It is a custom which is dying out, but it is still in vogue in some parts of the country.

Reafforestation. A very big development in the planting has arisen amongst the native population at the Kiungu Reserve. A few years back the only evidence of the cultivation of maize was to be seen in the mountains and on the hillsides. It is a custom which is dying out, but it is still in vogue in some parts of the country.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CARS

In buying a Motor Car, consider what the cost will be when distributed over a number of years. What is the car's reputation for satisfactory performance after the first year? After the second—and after the third—and the fourth? The world-wide fame of Dodge Brothers Touring Cars rests chiefly on their ability to continue giving faithful service long after the period of life commonly allotted to Motor Cars.
